Americanization Process In The Second Generation:

Pragmatics & Language Learning Gabriele Kasper, Hanh thi Nguyen, Dina Rudolph Yoshimi, 2010 Pragmatics Language Learning Volume 12 examines the organization of second language and multilingual speakers talk and pragmatic knowledge across a range of naturalistic and experimental activities Based on data collected on Danish English Hawai i Creole Indonesian and Japanese as target languages the contributions explore the nexus of pragmatic knowledge interaction and L2 learning outside and inside of educational settings Learning to Pray in the Lutheran Sunday School 1942-1952 ,

South Asian Diaspora, Transnationalism and Identity Ajaya K. Sahoo, Brij Maharaj, 2025-10-20 This book examines how members of the South Asian diaspora one of the world s largest diasporic communities forge complex hybrid identities at the intersection of homeland traditions and host society influences Against the backdrop of significant deterritorialization and cultural diversity it explores the nuanced ways multiple generations navigate between preserving heritage and adapting to new environments Through rich multidisciplinary perspectives the volume investigates The blending of traditional practices with new cultural elements The delicate balance between adaptation and heritage preservation The emergence of unique cultural spaces shaped by transnational connections Organized into two comprehensive sections identity formation and transnational practices this collection offers valuable insights into the lived experiences of South Asian communities worldwide and is essential reading for scholars and students in diaspora studies migration research transnationalism and South Asian cultural studies The chapters in this book were originally published in South Asian Diaspora The Quest for Political Unity in World History Stanley McCrory Pargellis, 1944 Survival Through Integration Ofer Shiff, 2005 This book describes the social and cultural challenges posed by the Holocaust from the subjective angle of those who attempted to maintain unquestioning fealty to the universalistic American Jewish Reform belief in integration even in view of the disheartening realities of the 1930s and the 1940s Migration, Transnationalization, and Race in a Changing New York Héctor R. Cordero-Guzmán, Robert C. Smith, Ramón Grosfoguel, 2001 In this work 19 scholars from a range of disciplines discuss New York s immigrant communities They explore the interaction between economic globalization and transnationalization demographic change and the evolving racial ethnic and gender dynamics in the city A New Language, A New World Nancy C. Carnevale, 2010-10-01 An examination of Italian immigrants and their children in the early twentieth century A New Language A New World is the first full length historical case study of one immigrant group s experience with language in America Incorporating the interdisciplinary literature on language within a historical framework Nancy C Carnevale illustrates the complexity of the topic of language in American immigrant life By looking at language from the perspectives of both immigrants and the dominant culture as well as their interaction this book reveals the role of language in the formation of ethnic identity and the often coercive context within which immigrants must negotiate this process Theodore Roosevelt and the Idea of Race Thomas G. Dyer, 1992-07-01 This provocative study examines Theodore

Roosevelt's ideas about race focusing especially on his attitude toward blacks American Indians immigration and imperialism Thomas G Dyer gives careful attention to formal and nonformal aspects of Roosevelt's thought as revealed in his voluminous published works and personal papers Dyer's book asks a number of important questions In what proportions do popular thought and formal racial theory appear in Roosevelt's attitudes What was the intellectual context of his speculations on race How was his racial thought related to broader areas of intellectual activity such as natural science and social philosophy How did Roosevelt regard various white and nonwhite ethnic groups How did Roosevelt's racial thought conform to the prevailing philosophies of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Historians have traditionally disagreed about the character of Theodore Roosevelt's racial ideology Dyer's illuminating study clarifies many of the relevant issues by viewing Roosevelt's racial theory as an integrated whole

Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph's volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship
