Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre

Literary Biography Michael J. Benton, 2015-08-03 Literary Biography An Introduction illustrates and accounts for the literary genre that merges historical facts with the conventions of narrative while revealing how the biographical context can enrich the study of canonical authors Provides up to date and comprehensive coverage of issues and controversies in life writing a rapidly growing field of study Offers a valuable biographical and historical context for the study of major classic and contemporary authors Features an interview with Wilfred Owen s biographer Dominic Hibberd a gallery of literary portraits with commentaries close readings that illustrate the differences between fiction and biography speculation about likely future developments and detailed suggestions for further reading Experiments with Truth Hedley Twidle, 2019 Unusable pasts scandalous lives political betrayal confession and collaboration reading narrative non fiction across South Africa's unfinished transition Over the last decades South Africa has seen an outpouring of life writing and narrative non fiction Authors like Panashe Chigumadzi Jacob Dlamini Mark Gevisser Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Antjie Krog Sisonke Msimang Njabulo Ndebele Jonny Steinberg and Ivan Vladislavic have produced a compelling and often controversial body of work exploring the country's ongoing political and social transition with great ambition texture and risk Experiments with Truth is the first book length account of non fiction in South African literature It reads the country's transition as refracted through an array of documentary modes that are simultaneously refashioned and blurred into each other long form analytic journalism and reportage experiments in oral history microhistory and archival reconstruction life writing memoir and the essay It traces the strange and ethically complex process by which real people places and events are shuffled patterned and plotted in long form prose narrative While holding in mind the imperatives of testimony and witness so important to the struggle for liberation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the case studies here are increasingly drawn to a post TRC aesthetic works that engage with difficult inappropriate or unusable elements of the past and the unfinished project of social reconstruction in South Africa The author examines non fictions that are speculative formally innovative and sometimes experimental rather than informational or narrowly journalistic that explore difficult subjects like collaboration complicity confession and have embedded within them their own reflections on the problems of narrating within a scene of unresolved difference In this way southern African materials are placed in a global context and in dialogue with other important non fictional traditions that have emerged at moments of social rupture and transition Hedley Twidle is a writer teacher and researcher based in the English Department at the University of Cape Town He specialises in twentieth century southern African and world literatures as well as creative non fiction and the environmental humanities His essay collection Firepool Experiences in an Abnormal World was published in 2017 Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2010-03-30 For what purpose and for whom has biographical pursuit endured and how does it play such a contested popular role in contemporary Western culture Award winning biographer Hamilton addresses these questions in an incisive and vivid narrative that will appeal to students of human nature and self representation across the arts and sciences The True Story of Alice B. Toklas Anna Linzie, 2006-04 In this original and intriguing study Anna Linzie examines three mid twentieth century texts never before treated as interrelated in a book length work of literary criticism Gertrude Stein's The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas 1933 and Alice B Toklas's The Alice B Toklas Cook Book 1954 and What Is Remembered 1963 Taking these three texts as intertexts or as an assemblage of the true story of Alice B Toklas Linzie challenges assumptions about primary authorship and singular identity that have continued to limit lesbian and feminist rereadings of autobiography as a genre and of Stein and Toklas as writers and historical figures The True Story of Alice B Toklas explores how the concept of autobiography as a primarily referential genre is challenged and transformed in relation to autobiographical texts written about the same person the same life but differently by different writers at different points in time The concept of one true story is deconstructed in the process as Linzie modifies Homi K Bhabha s almost the same but not quite not white for the purposes of this particular study as almost the same but not quite not straight The investigation moves simultaneously on the planes of textuality and sexuality in order to provisionally articulate a lesbian autobiographical subject in Linzie s reading of these three texts Linzie s study fills a gap in literary criticism where Stein s companion and her work have been more or less neglected conceptualizing the Stein Toklas sexual textual relationship as fundamentally reciprocal The True Story of Alice B Toklas provides a new critical perspective on Toklas as indispensable to Stein s literary production a cultural laborer in her own right and a writer of her own books Making a significant contribution to recent lesbian feminist reconceptualizations of the genre of autobiography this study will fascinate Stein and Toklas scholars as well as those interested in queer and autobiography studies

Month and Catholic Review, 1880 Henry James as a Biographer Willie Tolliver, 2014-02-04 This study of Henry James s biographies of Nathaniel Hawthorne and William Wetmore Story offers an argument that he deserves greater recognition for his contributions to the development of biography based on his implicit theory of biography found in his critical commentary and on these two complicated and ultimately artistically innovative performances in the genre Although James maintained an ambivalent relationship to the art of biography in his reviews criticism letters and fiction he wrote about biography from a core of aesthetic conviction that constitutes an informal poetics It is necessary thus to scrutinize the ways in which James s theoretical convictions particularly his insistence on artistic unity fail him when he writes two biographies himself Both Hawthorne 1879 and William Wetmore Story and His Friends 1903 fail to cohere in the way traditional biographies achieve unity Neither work has at its center a dynamic and fully dimensional apprehension of the biographical subject Instead James violates one of his own essential biographical tenets He usurps his subject and places himself at the center of what should be a narrative of his subject s life The results fall short of fully achieved biography but they do not fall short of literary interest In order to write these books according to his own genius James had to reinvent the form They are rife with innovations chief among them his great experimentation with narrative point of view here brought to bear on biography This concept and others survey the terrain for the important biographical practitioners and theorists who follow him For this reason a special place must be found for James in pantheon of experimental biographers
