Birch The Star:

Writing the City Peter Preston, Paul Simpson-Housley, 2002-09-11 Arguing that classic geographical descriptions of the city fail to accommodate the crucial aspect of human life this visualizes the city through the hopes aspirations disappointments and pains of international novelists and creative writers

My Search Susaik Chu, 2015-10-16 My Search is the result of over 10 years of research testing and experimenting to find answers for all the people about allergies and sickness and how and why they were getting them The author feels that her work will serve and help people around the world This book is a personal journey of an author who fundamentally cares about the welfare and health of her fellow man and wanted to use her own personal challenges and transform them into opportunity to learn and better the world around her

His Way Barry Gustafson, 2013-11-01 This the only authorized biography of New Zealand's prime minister Robert Muldoon one of the dominant political figures of the last half century in that country Based on many hours of conversation with Muldoon himself as well as colleagues friends and family and wide access to the prime minister's official and private papers and diaries this book has been awarded the Ian Wards Prize for published historical writing Muldoon is shown as a champion of the ordinary people whose vision over time became anachronistic and inflexible The book is also a fascinating picture of New Zealand's changing political landscape from the 1940s to the 1980s

The Sign for Home Blair Fell, 2023-03-14 Arlo Dilly is young handsome and eager to meet the right girl He also happens to be DeafBlind a Jehovah's Witness and under the strict guardianship of his controlling uncle His chances of finding someone to love seem slim to none And yet it happened once before many years ago at a boarding school for the Deaf Arlo met the love of his life a mysterious girl with onyx eyes and beautifully expressive hands which told him the most amazing stories But tragedy struck and their love was lost forever Or so Arlo thought After years trying to heal his broken heart Arlo is assigned a college writing assignment which unlocks buried memories of his past Soon he wonders if the hearing people he was supposed to trust have been lying to him all along and if his lost love might be found again No longer willing to accept what others tell him Arlo convinces a small band of misfit friends to set off on a journey to learn the truth After all who better to bring on this quest than his gay interpreter and wildly inappropriate Belgian best friend Despite the many forces working against him Arlo will stop at nothing to find the girl who got away and experience all of life's joyful possibilities
