The ^AOxford Handbook of Political Consumerism Magnus Boström, Michele Micheletti, Peter Oosterveer, 2019-01-25

This volume offers the first comprehensive theoretical and comparative overview of the ways in which the market becomes a political arena. It maps the four major forms of political consumerism: boycotting, buycotting, spending to show support, and lifestyle politics, and discursive actions such as culture jamming. Chapters by leading scholars examine political consumerism in different locations and industry sectors and in consideration of environmental and human rights problems, political events, and the ethics of production and manufacturing practices.

The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture Birgit Krawietz, François Gauthier, 2024-09-16

The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture is an outstanding inter- and transdisciplinary reference source to key topics, problems, and debates in this challenging research field. The study of Islam is enriched by investigating religion and notably Islamic normativity, which functions as a resource for product design, attitudes toward commodification, and appropriated patterns of behavior. Comprising 35 chapters, including an extended Introduction by a team of international contributors from chairholders to advanced graduate students, the handbook is divided into seven parts: Guiding Frameworks of Understanding, Historical Probes, Urbanism and Consumption, Body Manipulation, Vestimentary Regimes, and Gender, Mediated Religion and Culture, Consumer Culture, Lifestyle and Senses of the Self through Consumption, and Markets. These sections examine vibrant debates around consumption, frugality, Islamic jurisprudence and fatwas in the world economy, capitalism, neoliberalism, trade relations, halalization, labor, tourism, and travel infrastructure, body modification, fashion, self-fashioning, lifestylization, Islamic kitsch, urban regeneration, heritage, Islamic finance, the internet, and Quran recitation versus music. Contributions present selected case studies from countries across the world, including China, Indonesia, Malaysia, Morocco, Nigeria, Qatar, Pakistan, and Turkey. The handbook is essential reading for students and researchers in Islamic studies, Near and Middle Eastern studies, religious studies, and cultural studies. The handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as politics, area studies, sociology, anthropology, and history. Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives (CC BY-NC-ND) 4.0 license.
