Biographers Notebook:

Writers and Their Notebooks Diana M. Raab, 2022-04-13 Personal reflections on the vital role of the notebook in creative writing from Dorianne Laux Sue Grafton John Dufresne Kyoko Mori and more This collection of essays by established professional writers explores how their notebooks serve as their studios and workshops places to collect to play and to make new discoveries with language passions and curiosities For these diverse writers the journal also serves as an ideal forum to develop their writing voice whether crafting fiction nonfiction or poetry Some include sample journal entries that have since developed into published pieces Through their individual approaches to keeping a notebook the contributors offer valuable advice personal recollections and a hearty endorsement of the value of using notebooks to document develop and nurture a writer s creative spark

Teaching Adolescent Writers Kelly Gallagher, 2006 Describes strategies for teaching writing to adolescents including teaching the reasons writing is important meeting student needs in learning writing modeling good writing by the teacher using real world models of writing giving students choice writing for authentic real world purposes and assessing student writing Provided by publisher

Reading Biography Carl Rollyson, 2004 Most book reviewers know very little about the history or the art of biography Indeed if there is any art in biography it is the rare reviewer that acknowledges it or knows how to discuss it Usually the reviewer regards biography as an occasion to wax eloquent about what he or she thinks of the subject Little space if any is devoted to the biography s structure or style to the biographer s peculiar problems or to how the biography relates to others about the same subject Carl Rollyson a professional biographer and weekly columnist On Biography for The New York Sun explores the ramifications of authorized and unauthorized biographies investigates the relationship between biography and history biography and fiction biography and autobiography as well commenting on certain perennial biographical subjects such as Napoleon on sub genres such as children s biography and on the most recent developments in life writing Rollyson s aim is to reach not merely scholars but that vast general audience addicted to reading biography enhancing their pleasure by providing insight or you might say the inside word on how biographies are put together

The Stolen Notebooks SUSAN AUDREY GRUNDY, 2019-09-29 Art Historian Susan Grundy delves into reasons biographers assume a Tuscan painter Leonardo da Vinci wrote the Notebooks It was only in the nineteenth century that European scholars began to access these Notebooks in more depth transcribing the arcane backwards Italian and translating them into English Yet they discovered a man who did not seem to be Tuscan Leonardo da Vinci as he seemed to be a man from the East Yet this reality was closed down by researchers who seemed determined to continue with the myth of the self educated genius from a farm in Tuscany

Thinking Tools for Young Readers and Writers Carol Booth Olson, Angie Balias, Emily McCourtney, Mary Widtmann, 2018 In her new book bestselling author and professional developer Carol Booth Olson and colleagues show teachers how to help young readers and writers construct meaning from and with texts This practical resource offers a rich array of research based teaching strategies activities and extended lessons focused on the thinking tools employed by experienced readers and writers. It shows teachers how to draw on the natural connections between reading and writing and how cognitive strategies can be embedded into the teaching of narrative, informational, and argumentative texts. Including artifacts and written work produced by students across the grade levels, the authors connect the cognitive and affective domains for full student engagement. This book seamlessly bridges the gap from research to everyday practice. You get an extremely well organized set of overarching instructional principles that are right for our era and brought to life through well explained instructional guides and classroom activities.

Foreword by Judith Langer, University at Albany, SUNY. I have always admired Carol Booth Olson's work with secondary students and teachers. She now applies those essential principles and practices to elementary and middle school students.

Bravo! P. David Pearson, professor emeritus, University of California, Berkeley.

The Poets & Writers Complete Guide to Being a Writer Kevin Larimer, Mary Gannon, 2020-04-07

The definitive source of information, insight, and advice for creative writers from the nation's largest and most trusted organization for writers, Poets Writers. For half a century, writers at every stage of their careers have turned to the literary nonprofit organization Poets Writers and its award-winning magazine for resources to foster their professional development, from writing prompts and tips on technique to informative interviews with published authors, literary agents, and editors. But never before has Poets Writers marshaled its fifty years worth of knowledge to create an authoritative guide for writers that answers every imaginable question about craft and career until now. Here is the writing bible for authors of all genres and forms, covering topics such as how to harness your imagination and jump start your creativity, develop your work from initial idea to final draft, find a supportive and inspiring writing community to sustain your career, find the best MFA program for you, publish your work in literary magazines and develop a platform, research writing contests and other opportunities to support your writing life, decide between traditional publishing and self-publishing, find the right literary agent, anticipate what agents look for in queries and proposals, work successfully with an editor and your publishing team, market yourself and your work in a digital world, approach financial planning and taxes as a writer, and much more. Written by Kevin Larimer and Mary Gannon, the two most recent editors of Poets Writers Magazine, this book brings an unrivaled understanding of the areas in which writers seek guidance and support. Filled with insider information like sample query letters, pitch letters, lists of resources, and worksheets for calculating freelance rates, tracking submissions, and managing your taxes, the guide does more than demystify the writing life; it also provides an array of powerful tools for building a sustainable career as a writer. In addition to the wealth of insights into creativity, publishing, and promotion, are first person essays from bestselling authors including George Saunders, Christina Baker Kline, and Ocean Vuong, as well as reading lists from award-winning writers such as Anthony Doerr, Cheryl Strayed, and Natalie Diaz. Here at last is the ultimate comprehensive resource that belongs on every writer's desk.

The Power of the Story Michael Hanne, 1996. A spirited, well-researched volume. This highly readable study is an impressive work of contemporary criticism.
