Blues in Black and White May Ayim, 2003 German Memory Contests Anne Fuchs, Mary Cosgrove, Georg Grote, 2006

Since unification in 1990 Germany has seen a boom in the confrontation with memory evident in a sharp increase in novels films autobiographies and other forms of public discourse that engage with the long term effects of National Socialism across generations Taking issue with the concept of Vergangenheitsbewältigung or coming to terms with the Nazi past which after 1945 guided nearly all debate on the topic the contributors to this volume view contemporary German culture through the more dynamic concept of memory contests which sees all forms of memory public or private as ongoing processes of negotiating identity in the present Touching on gender generations memory and postmemory trauma theory ethnicity historiography and family narrative the contributions offer a comprehensive picture of current German memory debates in so doing shedding light on the struggle to construct a German identity mindful of but not wholly defined by the horrors of National Socialism and the Holocaust Contributors Peter Fritzsche Anne Fuchs Elizabeth Boa Stefan Willer Chloe E M Paver Matthias Fiedler J J Long Dagmar C G Lorenz Cathy S Gelbin Jennifer E Michaels Mary Cosgrove Andrew Plowman Roger Woods Anne Fuchs is Professor of modern German literature and Georg Grote is Lecturer in German history both at University College Dublin Mary Cosgrove is Lecturer in German at the University of Edinburgh Not So Plain as Black and White Patricia M. Mazón, Reinhild Steingröver, 2005 After World War II brown babies were born to African American GIs stationed in Germany and German mothers Today there are 500 000 Afro Germans in Germany out of a population of 80 million Nevertheless German society still sees them as foreigners assuming they are either African or African American but never German As editors Patricia Mazon and Reinhild Steingrover argue the experience of Afro Germans provides insight into contemporary Germany's transformation willing or not into a multicultural society Furthermore looking at Afro Germans allows us to see another dimension of the ideas of race that shaped the twentieth century and led to the Holocaust Jacket

Mobilizing Black Germany Tiffany N. Florvil, 2020-12-28 In the 1980s and 1990s Black German women began to play significant roles in challenging the discrimination in their own nation and abroad Their grassroots organizing writings and political and cultural activities nurtured innovative traditions ideas and practices These strategies facilitated new often radical bonds between people from disparate backgrounds across the Black Diaspora Tiffany N Florvil examines the role of queer and straight women in shaping the contours of the modern Black German movement as part of the Black internationalist opposition to racial and gender oppression Florvil shows the multifaceted contributions of women to movement making including Audre Lorde's role in influencing their activism the activists who inspired Afro German women to curate their own identities and histories and the evolution of the activist groups Initiative of Black Germans and Afro German Women These practices and strategies became a rallying point for isolated and marginalized women and men and shaped the roots of contemporary Black German activism Richly researched and multidimensional in scope Mobilizing Black

New Paradigm Shifts in Literature through Poetry's Transcendence of Boundaries Yasser K. R. Aman, 2025-03-05 This book proves that when science and literature especially poetry enact and interact with each other transdisciplinary fields are created and new knowledge building practices are produced The discussions of interconnections between poetry on the one hand and physics biology biochemistry and pharmacology on the other hand stress that common ground can be found among diverse disciplines and transdisciplinary solutions can be offered to wicked problems The relation between science and transdisciplinarity and other knowledge systems including arts and literature should be supported Novel thinking mixing and merging disciplines creating a third space and realizing new findings should relate academy to society Therefore researchers and transdisciplinarians should focus on the power that can reshape the world transcending traditional academic confines Raising questions that can lead to deeply philosophical and scientific disputes develops solutions for wicked problems and creates an ongoing encounter on all solutions There should be a remapping of societal landscape so that transdisciplinarity
