Bodie Bonanza The True Story Of A Flamboyant Past:

Bodie Bonanza Warren Loose,1979 The Townsend Family in the Emerging American West, 1856-1926 Susan E. James,2024-11-18 This book examines the life of the Townsend family and the events that occurred during the period of 1856 1926 that shaped an expanding American West Bryant and Julia Riley Townsend and their three children were born into an age of rapid change and competing cultures Witnesses to a century of events that shaped a nation their lives define the complexities and challenges of incomers who arrived in an expanding American West From the Gold Rush to the California oil boom from slavery to female suffrage from Indian Wars to World Wars the Townsends lived through violent upheavals outlasting cities societal beliefs and entire ways of life Married in a mining camp in Nevada and relocating frequently the couple embraced the momentary riches shattering losses and personal disasters faced by a vast number of immigrants foreign and domestic striving to survive in an often hostile landscape Their lives and those of their three children Minnie Edith Bryant and Persia form the architecture supporting an examination of multiple facets of the Western experience and are exemplars of the different populations that merged to form the American identity This volume will be of value to students and scholars interested in American history social and cultural history and modern history Death Valley to Deadwood; Kennecott to Cripple Creek United States. National Park Service. Division of National Register Programs,1990 Papers address concerns by contractors and agencies in how to survey and nominate properties to the National Register of Historic Places and how to mitigate adverse actions on significant resources management concerns related to historic mining sites on public lands and interpretation and display of mining sites and materials The focus is on the western United States but other parts of the U S and western Canada are covered A Culture Resource Overview of the Bureau of Land Management, Coleville, Bodie, Benton and Owens Valley Planning Units, California Colin I. Busby,John M. Findlay,James C. Bard,1980

The Polar Adventures of a Rich American Dame Joanna Kafarowski,2017-11-04 Louise Arner Boyd inherited the family millions in her thirties Expected to lead a respectable life she instead fell under the captivating spell of the north Over the next thirty years she organized and led seven hazardous expeditions around Greenland and was showered with international awards Mining for Freedom Sylvia Alden Roberts,2008 Did you know that an estimated 5 000 blacks were an early and integral part of the California Gold Rush Did you know that black history in California precedes Gold Rush history by some 300 years Did you know that in California during the Gold Rush blacks created one of the wealthiest most culturally advanced most politically active communities in the nation Few people are aware of the intriguing dynamic often wholly inspirational stories of African American argonauts from backgrounds as diverse as those of their less sturdy complexioned peers Defying strict California fugitive slave laws and an unforgiving court testimony ban in a state that declared itself free black men and women combined skill ambition and courage and rose to meet that daunting challenge with dignity determination and even a certain elan leaving behind a legacy that has gone starkly under reported Mainstream history tends to contribute to the illusion that African Americans were all but absent from the California Gold Rush experience This remarkable book illustrated with dozens of photos offers definitive contradiction to that illusion and opens a door that leads the reader into a forgotten world long shrouded behind the shadowy curtains of time The Political Nature of Cultural Heritage and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy, 2017-05-15 This three volume reference series provides an authoritative and comprehensive set of volumes collecting together the most influential articles and papers on tourism heritage and culture The papers have been selected and introduced by Dallen Timothy one of the leading international scholars in tourism research The third volume The Political Nature of Cultural Heritage and Tourism addresses contemporary issues such as heritage dissonance the debate on authenticity conflict and contested heritage Sold individually and as a set this series will prove an essential reference work for scholars and students in geography tourism and heritage studies cultural studies and beyond Textures of Place Paul C. Adams, Steven D. Hoelscher, Karen E. Till, 2001 A fresh and far ranging interpretation of the concept of place this volume begins with a fundamental tension of our day as communications technologies help create a truly global economy the very political economic processes that would seem to homogenize place actually increase the importance of individual localities which are exposed to global flows of investment population goods and pollution Place no less today than in the past is fundamental to how the world works The contributors to this volume distinguished scholars from geography art history philosophy anthropology and American and English literature investigate the ways in which place is embedded in everyday experience its crucial role in the formation of group and individual identity and its ability to reflect and reinforce power relations Their essays draw from a wide array of methodologies and perspectives including feminism ethnography poststructuralism ecocriticism and landscape ichnography to examine themes as diverse as morality and imagination attention and absence personal and group identity social structure home nature and cosmos Mono Lake Abraham Hoffman, 2014-04 Environmental controversy brought so much attention to Mono Lake in the late twentieth century that it became best known for its appearance on Save Mono Lake bumper stickers This thoughtful study is the first book to explore the lake s environmental and cultural history The Historical Archaeology of Ghost Towns in the California- Nevada Borderlands Donald Scott Crull, 1993
