Beginning The Good News:

Beginning the Good News Francis J. Moloney, 2006-12-01 Beginning the Good News Francis Moloney provides a narrative critical reading of Mark 1 1 13 Matthew 1 2 Luke 1 2 and John 1 1 18 to illustrate that the readings of the Gospels set up a tension in the reader who learns from the beginning but still cannot rest satisfied The Gospels beginnings promise the reader the great prize of understanding later

Good News of Jesus L. William Countryman, 1993-02-01 At the heart of Christianity stands the figure of Jesus and the message he embodied the gospel This book seeks to make what is at the heart of the Christian religion available in a new way in our time Many of those who read this book will already have some notion of what the Christian faith is about Professor Countryman therefore writes I fear that the reader will bring to the reading of this book all kinds of assumptions that don't belong here and I have tried to be explicit in rejecting some of these so that I can reintroduce something truer Within the church and outside of it people today are in a period of refocusing and rediscovery asking what is really central to the Christian faith Some claim that today's church has lost its heart if not its soul Countryman sounds a clarion call back to the gospel the good news For in the end he writes we must be prepared to choose the good news over everything else Here then is a fundamental work that has grown out of and been tested in the parish and that has served as a basic text for seminary courses in Foundations of Christian Spirituality L. William Countryman is Professor of New Testament at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific Berkeley California and author of The Language of Ordination Ministry in an Ecumenical Context also published by Trinity Press

Good News Preaching Gennifer Benjamin Brooks, 2025-10-01 In an update to her foundational work Good News Preaching Brooks frames the essential methodology of good preaching the importance of real transformative good news This second edition of Good News Preaching accounts for changes in the landscape of church and culture including a global pandemic and shrinking congregations and argues that the good news of God's grace and liberation is ever more essential for Christian discipleship

Old and New Morna D. Hooker, 2024-04-17 This collection of essays by Morna D Hooker deals with the theme of continuity and discontinuity primarily between first century Judaism and early Christianity and explores the ways in which New Testament writers drew on their own cultures and previous beliefs in interpreting their experience of Jesus

Mark Ronald J. Kernaghan, 2010-08-21 The Gospel of Mark is widely regarded today as the first Gospel to be written Until recent decades its fast paced seemingly straightforward presentation led most readers to overlook its subtle theological sophistication Probing its depths Ronald Kernaghan invites readers into a fascinating exploration of Mark's Gospel as a parable an open ended story that invites us on a lifelong journey of discipleship Throughout Kernaghan explains what the gospel meant to its original hearers and its application for us today

The Four Gospels on Sunday Gordon W. Lathrop, 2012-06-01 Premier liturgical theologian Gordon Lathrop argues that far too often liturgy preaching and liturgical theology are informed by nave and outdated exegesis In another fully original and deeply reflective work Lathrop partners with newer biblical studies to see the Gospels anew He treats the Gospels as early witnesses to the meaning of Christian assembly and forces in the shaping and reshaping of liturgy Lathrop first probes each Gospel historically and exegetically to discern what it tells us about early Christian worship and Christians relationship to the Risen One Then Lathrop treats the Gospels together to draw out more of their contemporary importance especially ways in which they can enrich our reflection about the assembly itself ministry baptism the use of scripture in liturgy and unity within ecumenical diversity Taking seriously the origins of the New Testament as we understand them today Lathrop demonstrates that the Gospels can remain a true catalyst for liturgical theology and liturgical renewal as well as an inspiring link to the faith and convictions of the earliest followers of the Christian way

The Story of Beginnings H. Mark Abbott, 2013-09-25 In the Bible's introduction are embedded foundational perspectives on who God is and who humans are and what we should be doing that are developed throughout the book Genesis 1-3 is the story of beginnings depicting who the Creator God is what this God intended for the creation especially for the human creation how humans messed up and at least a hint of what God is doing about this Like Jesus the Apostle Paul and early church leaders when we want to know what God intended we listen to the Bible's introduction The Story of Beginnings deals with such questions as What is the Image of God Who were
