British Natural History 1495 1900:

British Natural History Books, 1495-1900 Richard Broke Freeman, 1980 The British Foundation of Indian Entomology Michael Darby, 2023-12-14 This is the first book devoted to the interest taken by amateur British collectors in Indian insects between 1750 and 1947 many employed as soldiers and medics by the East India Company Initially confined to the building up of personal collections many of which would later form the foundation of the London Natural History Museum's collection the early entomologists also donated specimens to the Asiatic Society of Bengal the Bombay Natural History Society and local museums Some published their findings in the journals of these institutions Towards the end of the nineteenth century interest in entomology shifted to focus on insect pests and their economic impact on forestry and horticulture The result was the founding of the Institutes of Forestry and Horticulture at Dehra Dun and Pusa where Indian scientists continue to conduct entomological research today The present work elucidates this previously under researched aspect of British insect history documenting the people places publications and institutions associated with the exploration of the rich entomological fauna of the Indian subcontinent Victorian Studies Sharon W. Propas, 2016-06-17 First published in 2006 this work is a valuable guide for the researcher in Victorian Studies Updated to include electronic resources this book provides guides to catalogs archives museums collections and databases containing material on the Victorian period It organises the vast array of reference sources by discipline to help researchers tailor their investigations ABHB Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries H. Vervliet, 1984-07-31 This twelfth volume of ABHB Annual bibliography of the history of the printed book and libraries contains 3333 records selected from some 2000 periodicals the list of which follows this introduction They have been compiled by the National Committees of the following countries Italy Australia Austria Luxembourg Belgium The Netherlands Poland Bulgaria Canada Portugal Denmark Rumania Finland South Africa France Spain German Democratic Republic Switzerland German Federal Republic USA Great Britain USSR Hungary Yugoslavia Ireland Republic of Spain and Latin America have partially been covered through the good offices of an American colleague Benevolent readers are requested to signal the names of bibliographers and historians from countries not mentioned above who would be willing to co operate to this scheme of international bibliographic collaboration The editor will greatly appreciate any communication on this matter Subject As has been said in the introduction to the previous volumes this bibliography aims at recording all books and articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of the arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description Of course the ideal of a complete coverage is nearly impossible to attain However it is the policy of this publication to include missing items as much as possible in the forthcoming volumes The same applies to countries newly added to the bibliography Identifying British Insects and Arachnids Peter Charles Barnard, 1999-04-15 Essential guide to the specialist literature for the identification of British insects and arachnids Naturalists in the Field ,2018-04-24 Interposed between the natural world in all its diversity and the edited form in which we encounter it in literature imagery and the museum lie the multiple practices of the naturalists in selecting recording and preserving the specimens from which our world view is to be reconstituted The factors that weigh at every stage are here dissected analysed and set within a historical narrative that spans more than five centuries During that era every aspect evolved and changed as engagement with nature moved from a speculative pursuit heavily influenced by classical scholarship to a systematic science drawing on advanced theory and technology Far from being neutrally objective the process of representing nature is shown as fraught with constraint and compromise With a Foreword by Sir David Attenborough Contributors are Marie Addyman Peter Barnard Paul D Brinkman Ian Convery Peter Davis Felix Driver Florike Egmond Annemarie Jordan Gschwend Geoff Hancock Stephen Harris Hanna Hodacs Stuart Houston Dominik Huenniger Rob Huxley Charlie Jarvis Malgosia Nowak Kemp Shepard Krech III Mark Lawley Arthur Lucas Marco Masseti Geoff Moore Pat Morris Charles Nelson Robert Peck Helen Scales Han F Vermeulen and Glyn Williams The History of Natural History Gavin D. R. Bridson,1994 Birds In Counties: An Ornithological Bibliography Of The Counties Of England, Wales, Scotland And The Isle Of Man David K Ballance,2000-05-05 This is an ornithological bibliography for the counties of England Wales and Scotland and for the Isle of Man It includes all known books pamphlets and papers which contain substantial studies of the birds of local areas from a county down to a back garden or a gravel pit Each county has an introduction on its boundaries and the history of its ornithology There has been no comprehensive national publication of this kind since Mullens Swann and Jourdain s Geographical Bibliography in 1920 The volume also provides a detailed record of the many county and local bird reports and of the ever increasing number of area surveys produced by statutory and voluntary bodies The material is arranged by the pre 1974 counties and takes the record up to 1995 There are maps to show the many changes in county boundaries since 1800 The book will be a standard reference work for libraries and collectors and for anyone interested in the rich and diverse development of local ornithology in its homeland The Making of Modern Science David Knight,2013-04-26 Of all the inventions of the nineteenth century the scientist is one of the most striking In revolutionary France the science student taught by men active in research was born and a generation later the graduate student doing a PhD emerged in Germany In 1833 the word scientist was coined forty years later science increasingly specialised was a becoming a profession Men of science rivalled clerics and critics as sages they were honoured as national treasures and buried in state funerals Their new ideas invigorated the life of the mind Peripatetic congresses great exhibitions museums technical colleges and laboratories blossomed and new industries based on chemistry and electricity brought prosperity and power economic and military Eighteenth century steam engines preceded understanding of the physics underlying them but electric telegraphs and motors were applied science based upon painstaking interpretation of nature The ideas discoveries and inventions of scientists transformed the world lives were longer and healthier cities and empires grew societies became urban rather than agrarian the local became global And by the opening years of the twentieth century science was spreading beyond Europe and North America and women were beginning to be visible in the ranks of scientists Bringing together the people events and discoveries of this exciting period into a lively narrative this book will be essential reading both for students of the history of science and for anyone interested in the foundations of the world as we know it today Roots of Ecology Frank N. Egerton, 2012-07-17 Ecological questions are at the center of many of the most important decisions faced by humanity Roots of Ecology documents the deep ancestry of this enormously important science from the early ideas of Herodotus Plato and Pliny up through those of Linnaeus and Darwin to those that inspired Ernst Haeckel's mid nineteenth century neologism ecology Based on a long running series of regularly published columns this important work gathers a vast literature that illustrates the development of the ecological concepts environmental ideas and creative reasoning that have led to our modern view of ecology Roots of Ecology should be on every ecologist's shelf Back cover
