Behind The Curtain:

Behind the Curtain Gregory D. Booth, 2008-10-13 Beginning in the 1930s men and a handful of women came from India's many communities Marathi Parsi Goan North Indian and many others to Mumbai to work in an industry that constituted in the words of some the original fusion music They worked as composers arrangers assistants and studio performers in one of the most distinctive popular music and popular film cultures on the planet Today the songs played by Mumbai's studio musicians are known throughout India and the Indian diaspora under the popular name Bollywood but the musicians themselves remain in their own words behind the curtain the anonymous and unseen performers of one of the world's most celebrated popular music genres Now Gregory D Booth offers a compelling account of the Bollywood film music industry from the perspective of the musicians who both experienced and shaped its history In a rare insider's look at the process of musical production from the late 1940s to the mid 1990s before the advent of digital recording technologies Booth explains who these unknown musicians were and how they came to join the film music industry On the basis of a fascinating set of first hand accounts from the musicians themselves he reveals how the day to day circumstances of technology and finance shaped both the songs and the careers of their creator and performers Booth also unfolds the technological cultural and industrial developments that led to the enormous studio orchestras of the 1960s 90s as well as the factors which ultimately led to their demise in contemporary India Featuring an extensive companion website with video interviews with the musicians themselves Behind the Curtain is a powerful ground level view of this globally important music industry

Behind the Curtain Max Pemberton, 1916 Behind the Curtain Jean, 2013-01-25 This is a well written poignant memoir of a woman's unhappy childhood and a brave and gripping account of her triumph over alcoholism The details of Jean's personal anguish and the obvious authenticity of her report on a life very nearly gone amiss demonstrate the kind of clout that only an honest personal account can have The frank way the book addresses the sensitive issues of alcoholism and domestic violence and the vivid recall and dramatic impact with which some scenes are described make this a powerful testament Both inspirational and informative also about the role AA played in her life once she admitted she had a problem The author stopped drinking 33 years ago and after achieving sobriety her career flourished and she opened her own business in 1985 She is now in her seventies and semi retired and has grandchildren who regard her as a cool gran something that would not have been possible if she hadn't stopped drinking The manuscript would not only appeal to help seeking addicts or to those already in rehab but very strongly too to family members and friends of such persons who are often in great need of information and support This is a personal testimony that will be helpful to many people

Behind The Curtain Philip Schofield, 2011-10-13 This book describes the encounters of the author and other members of a delegation of British teachers with some ordinary and extraordinary Russian people The author captures the essence of life in Russia in ways that are often funny sometimes moving and always convincing This book is an essential read for anyone who wants to learn more about this amazing country and its people The proceeds from this edition will go to Friends of Chernobyl's Children <http://www.focc.org.uk>

Behind the Curtain Kay Lovell, 2019-07 Colonel Jack Marsh decorated for bravery during World War 1 is now with M15 working closely with the P M Mr Chamberlain In 1938 Hitler's armed forces are on a relentless assault across Europe Jews are being rounded up and sent to concentration camps trying to escape anyway they can Adolph Vanir and his wife Florence are such Jews arriving in the UK around 1934 Living in St Anne's Court where he has a small business as well as his clandestine activities he has forsaken his Jewish roots much to the sadness of his wife Colonel Marsh becomes aware of Adolph Vanir's activities and has instructed a colleague to watch him The formation of Local Defence Volunteers and Air Raid Patrol in 1937 took men who were unable to go to war for one reason or another Harry Lloyd was one of them A worker at the London Docks making ships he was exempt from call up though he was a soldier between wars Married to Mattie and with one child Lorna perhaps Harry was saved for better things The Vanirs and the Lloyds cross paths and are linked to the assassination attempt on the War Minister the man who is now Prime Minister Behind the Curtain Wayne R. Kime, 2011-05-31 In the decade that followed his emigration to the United States in 1851 Fitz James O'Brien 1828-1862 produced a steady stream of contributions to American newspapers and magazines As short story writer essayist poet dramatist reporter reviewer drama critic and editor he won reputation as one of the ablest young writers in New York City displaying what one contemporary termed an extraordinary talent But soon after his early death from complications of a battle wound the sense of wonder at O'Brien's prolific accomplishments began to dissipate In 1881 his friend William Winter brought out The Poems and Stories of Fitz James O'Brien a one volume collection that spared him the oblivion that awaits even the ablest magazine writers That book with reprintings derived from it has formed almost by itself the basis for O'Brien's lasting reputation In the early decades of the twentieth century O'Brien continued to be admired as the most significant practitioner in the short story in the United States of the 1850s However since then the recognition of his achievement has focused on a few tales of the macabre and the supernatural He is now remembered in two unrelated contexts as a colorful member of the Bohemian circle that flourished in New York City in the years prior to the Civil War and as author of such stories as The Diamond Lens The Lost Room and What Was It A Mystery The present volume reintroduces the fiction of Fitz James O'Brien to modern readers by presenting fourteen of his works five here reprinted for the first time that together suggest the development and range of his accomplishment as a short story writer Additionally editorial commentary on individual stories reveals O'Brien's attunement to the fashions fads interests and concerns that manifested themselves in his adopted city and country Though immersed in the details of his own era O'Brien cherished a belief that some of his writings would live beyond it The present collection offers evidence t

Behind the Curtain Jonathan Wilson, 2012-04-09 EPIC Financial Times PERCEPTIVE The Sunday Times BLISSFUL Daily Telegraph FASCINATING Independent on Sunday TERRIFIC Henry Winter EXCELLENT Simon Kuper The fascinating story of football in Eastern Europe following the collapse of the Berlin Wall from the award winning author of Inverting the Pyramid From the war ravaged streets of Sarajevo where turning up for training involved dodging snipers bullets to the crumbling splendour of Budapest s Bozsik Stadium where the likes of Pusk s and Kocsis masterminded the fall of England the landscape of Eastern Europe has changed immeasurably since the collapse of communism Jonathan Wilson has travelled extensively behind the old Iron Curtain viewing life beyond the fall of the Berlin Wall through the lens of football Where once the state controlled teams of the Eastern bloc passed their way with crisp efficiency a sort of communist version of total football to considerable success on the European and international stages today the beautiful game in the East has been opened up to the free market and throughout the region a sense of chaos pervades The threat of totalitarian interference no longer remains but in its place mafia control is generally accompanied with a crippling lack of funds Jonathan Wilson goes in search of the spirit of Hungary s Golden Squad charts the disintegration of the footballing superpower Yugoslavia follows a sorry tale of corruption mismanagement and Armenian cognac through the Caucasuses reopens the case of Russia s greatest footballer Eduard Streltsov and talks to Jan Tomaszewski about an autumn night at Wembley in 1973 BEHIND THE CURTAIN is the definitive story of football in Eastern Europe
