Sino-American Relations Xiaobing Li,Qiang Fang,2025-10-01 Sino American Relations brings together high quality research articles in order to examine one aspect of the political mechanism of modern China from empire to the PRC political initiatives to root out corruption Proceeding chronologically the eleven chapters explore modern political history through a particular focus on the anti corruption campaigns of early modern and modern China Our interdisciplinary analysis draws on methodologies from several distinct fields including political science civil law and mass media Such an analysis reveals the unique characteristics of China s urbanization which have transformed not only the country but also the CCP from a rural based totalitarian party to a city centered authoritarian party and from a party of the people to a party of powerful interest groups by 2002 2016 The Media and Sino-American Rapprochement, 1963-1972 Guolin Yi,2020-11-11 Winner of the ACPSS Research Award An important new cultural study of the Cold War Guolin Yi s The Media and Sino American Rapprochement 1963 1972 analyzes how the media in both countries shaped public perceptions of the changing relations between China and the United States in the decade prior to Richard Nixon s visit to Beijing This book offers the first systematic study of Cankao Xiaoxi Reference News an internal Chinese newspaper that carried relatively objective stories the Xinhua News Agency translated from world news media for circulation among Communist cadres As the main channel for the cadres to learn about the outside world this newspaper provides a window into China s evolving foreign policy including the reception of signals from the Nixon administration Yi compares this internal communications channel with the public accounts contained in the more widely circulated newspaper People s Daily a chief propaganda outlet of the Chinese Communist Party CCP directed at its own people and China watchers all over the world A third level of communication emerges in classified CCP instructions and government documents By approaching the Chinese communication system on three levels internal public and classified Yi s analysis demonstrates how people at different positions in the political hierarchy accessed varying types of information allowing him to chart the development of Beijing s approach to the U S government In a corresponding analysis of the defining features of American reporting on China Yi considers the impact of government media relationships in the United States during the Cold War Alongside prominent magazines and newspapers particularly the New York Times and the Washington Post in their differing coverage of key events Yi discusses television networks which proved vital for promoting the success of Ping Pong Diplomacy and the impact of Nixon s visit in 1972 With its comparative study of news outlets in the two countries The Media and Sino American Rapprochement 1963 1972 presents a thorough and comprehensive perspective on the role of the media in influencing domestic Chinese and American public opinion during a critical decade China's America Jing Li, 2012-01-02 2011 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Winner of the 2011 Best Book Award presented by the Chinese American Librarians Association What do the Chinese think of America Why did Jiang Zemin praise the film Titanic Why did Mao call FDR's envoy Patrick Hurley a clown Why did the book China Can Say No meaning no to the United States become a bestseller only a few years after a replica of the Statue of Liberty was erected during protests in Tianamen Square Jing Li's fascinating book explores Chinese perceptions of the United States during the twentieth century As Li notes these two very different countries both played significant roles in world affairs and there were important interactions between them Chinese view of the United States were thus influenced by various and changing considerations resulting in interpretations and opinions that were complex and sometimes contradictory Li uncovers the historical political and cultural forces that have influenced these alternately positive and negative opinions Revealing in its insight into the twentieth century China's America is also instructive for all who care about the understandings between these two powerful countries as we move into the twenty first century China, an Analytical Survey of Literature United States. Department of the Army, 1978 Japan's Cultural Policy Toward China, 1918-1931 See Heng Teow, 2020-03-23 Most existing scholarship on Japan's cultural policy toward modern China reflects the paradigm of cultural imperialism In contrast this study demonstrates that Japan while motivated by pragmatic interests international cultural rivalries ethnocentrism moralism and idealism was mindful of Chinese opinion and sought the cooperation of the Chinese government Japanese policy stressed cultural communication and inclusiveness rather than cultural domination and exclusiveness and was part of Japan's search for an East Asian cultural order led by Japan China however was not a passive recipient and actively sought to redirect this policy to serve its national interests and aspirations The author argues that it is time to move away from the framework of cultural imperialism toward one that recognizes the importance of cultural autonomy internationalism and transculturation America's Mission Tony Smith, 2012-03-12 America's Mission argues that the global strength and prestige of democracy today are due in large part to America's impact on international affairs Tony Smith documents the extraordinary history of how American foreign policy has been used to try to promote democracy worldwide an effort that enjoyed its greatest triumphs in the occupations of Japan and Germany but suffered huge setbacks in Latin America Vietnam and elsewhere With new chapters and a new introduction and epilogue this expanded edition also traces U S attempts to spread democracy more recently under presidents Clinton Bush and Obama and assesses America's role in the Arab Spring Perceptions of China and White House Decision-Making, 1941-1963 Adam S.R. Bartley, 2019-11-26 This book assesses and evaluates the decision making behavior of United States presidents and their chief advisers from Roosevelt to Kennedy pertaining to China Seeking to dispel with the notion that each administration sought policy outcomes on the basis of a rational decision making model Bartley highlights the contradictions of adopted presidential decision making processes and the nature of domestic politics as playing prejudicial and debilitating roles The book demonstrates that elite decision making processes interacted with assumptions made about Chinese behavior interests and attitudes only superficially and in some cases not at all Misinformation and misperception were the natural outcomes Reinforced by the politics of McCarthyism at home intellectual debate on China policy was squashed parochialism and nuance were shunned and information was closed off Ultimately a divorce between the norm of behavior and the search for rational policy was registered in each administration The net result was a lasting and destructive cognitive dissonance to fit expectations of a China reality constructed information was ignored overlooked and distorted Offering new insights into the China policies of consecutive administrations from 1941 to 1963 this volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of American foreign policy security studies and international relations
