Black Snow Days:

Black Snow Days Claudia O'Keefe, 1990 Eric Pope awakens from a twelve year coma to discover the world destroyed by war and his own mind and body rebuilt into something inhuman a creature who unlike the others can survive in the deadly black snow outside their shelter

The Ship of Birth Greg Delanty, 2007 The Ship of Birth records a father's responses in the time immediately before and after the birth of his child Just as material significant to the dead is placed in a ship of death so this ship of birth contains what is significant to the child the wonder and trepidation of the parents the nature of the soul the future growth of the child Greg Delanty's poems draw on his experiences in American and Irish cultures using the traditional verse structures of seventeenth century religious poets along with open modern colloquial forms to evoke the subtle interconnections of the past and future Without sentimentality or self indulgence Delanty acknowledges the dark and difficult reality that the child faces while affirming the sustaining continuity of life

Diary of Interrupted Days Dragan Todorovic, 2010-04-09 Dragan Todorovic's first book written in English won him a literary prize for non fiction and predictions from readers that he was a novelist in the making The readers were right as his exceptional first novel proves Diary of Interrupted Days is playful blazingly intelligent occasionally erotic and ultimately tragic unfurling from the cliffhanger scene that opens the book a lone exile returning to Belgrade for the first time since he fled to Canada in the mid nineties is stranded on the only bridge into the city that hasn't been destroyed by NATO bombers as air raid sirens sound He should be focused on getting off the bridge but he seems unable to calculate the risk The war that dismembered his country still haunts him but what has him frozen is that the disruptions of war allowed him to steal happiness for himself from his best friend with the likelihood that he would never be caught But lies even artful ones told by someone adept at incinerating the past have a way of catching up to you As the man on the bridge is about to find out

The Hawk, 2016 Reminders of the American Century Brent Ryan Bellamy, 2021-03-08 This book explores the post apocalyptic novel in American literature from the 1940s to the present as reflections of a growing anxiety about the decline of US hegemony Post apocalyptic novels imagine human responses to the aftermath of catastrophe The shape of the future they imagine is defined by the remainder when what is left behind expresses itself in storytelling tropes Since 1945 the portentous fate of the United States has shifted from the irradiated future of nuclear holocaust to the saltwater wash of global warming Theorist Brent Ryan Bellamy illuminates the political unconscious of post apocalyptic writing drawing on a range of disciplinary fields including science fiction studies American studies energy humanities research and critical race theory From George R Stewart's Earth Abides to N K Jemisin's The Fifth Season Reminders of the American Century describes the tension between a reactionary impulse and the progressive impetus for a new world Brent Ryan Bellamy weaves a rich and diverse tapestry of fictions all of which navigate the changing valences of apocalypse survival and remainders during the rise and fall of the post Second World War American Century Given the global post apocalyptic reality we all currently inhabit this is a timely and significant study Brent
