Black/South Africa/Contemporary Graphics ,1976 Art and the End of Apartheid John Pepper,2009 Black South African artists have typically had their work labeled African art or township art qualifiers that when contrasted with simply modernist art have been used to marginalize their work both in South Africa and internationally This is the The first book to fully explore cosmopolitan modern art by black South Africans under apartheid Impressions from South Africa, 1965 to Now Judith B. Hecker,2011 Encompassing black and white linoleum cuts made at community art centres in the 1960s and 1970s resistance posters and other political art of the 1980s and the wide variety of subjects and techniques explored by artists in printshops over the last two decades printmaking has been a driving force in contemporary South African artistic and political expression Impressions from South Africa 1965 to Now published to accompany an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art introduces the vital role of printmaking through works by more than twenty artists in the Museum s collection The volume features prints by John Muafangejo and Dan Rakgoathe a selection of posters produced for anti apartheid coalitions in the 1980s and nuanced political work by Sue Williamson Norman Catherine and William Kentridge The book features many more recent projects demonstrating the contemporary relevance of the medium in South Africa today The work presented in a generous plate section is contextualized in an introduction by Judith B Hecker and accompanied by brief biographies of the artists a timeline of relevant events in South African history and a selected bibliography Black South African Contemporary Graphics Sylvia H. Williams,1976 Contemporary South African Art Kendell Geers,1997 The Unfolding Man Donve Langan,Dan Rakgoathe,2000 An account of the artist Dan Rakgoathe s search of his soul through his work as a print maker study and writing blindness and meditation This illustrated biography explores the story of the artist s life and discusses his art Urban Comics Dominic Davies,2019-02-21 Urban Comics Infrastructure and the Global City in Contemporary Graphic Narratives makes an important and timely contribution both to comics studies and urban studies offering a decolonisation and reconfiguration of both of these already interdisciplinary fields With chapter length discussions of comics from cities such as Cairo Cape Town New Orleans Delhi and Beirut this book shows how artistic collectives and urban social movements working across the global South are producing some of the most exciting and formally innovative graphic narratives of the contemporary moment Throughout the author reads an expansive range of graphic narratives through the vocabulary of urban studies to argue that these formal innovations should be thought of as a kind of infrastructure This infrastructural form allows urban comics to reveal that the built environments of our cities are not static banal or depoliticised but rather highly charged material spaces that allow some forms of social life to exist while also prohibiting others Built from a formal infrastructure of grids gutters and panels and capable of volumetric multi scalar perspectives this book shows how urban comics are able to represent repair and even rebuild contemporary global cities toward more socially just and sustainable ends Operating at the intersection of comics studies and urban studies and offering large global surveys alongside close textual and visual analyses this book explores and opens up the fascinating relationship between comics and graphic narratives on the one hand and cities and urban spaces on the other
