Black Sunday French Version:

Black Sunday Martyn Conterio, 2015-06-30 Despite its reputation as one of the greatest and most influential of all horror films there is surprisingly little literature dedicated to Mario Bava's Black Sunday 1960 and this contribution to the Devil's Advocates series is the first single book dedicated to it Martyn Conterio places the film in the historical context of being one of the first sound Italian horror films and how its success kick started the Italian horror boom The author considers the particularly Italian perspective on the gothic that the film pioneered and its fresh and pioneering approach to horror tropes such as the vampire and the witch and considers how the casting of British Scream Queen Barbara Steele was crucial to the film's effectiveness and success Black Sunday Thomas Harris, 1993

Vietnam 1945 David G. Marr, 2023-09-01 1945 the most significant year in the modern history of Vietnam One thousand years of dynastic politics and monarchist ideology came to an end Eight decades of French rule lay shattered Five years of Japanese military occupation ceased Allied leaders determined that Chinese troops in the north of Indochina and British troops in the South would receive the Japanese surrender Ho Chi Minh proclaimed the Democratic Republic of Vietnam with himself as president Drawing on extensive archival research interviews and an examination of published memoirs and documents David G Marr has written a richly detailed and descriptive analysis of this crucial moment in Vietnamese history He shows how Vietnam became a vortex of intense international and domestic competition for power and how actions in Washington and Paris as well as Saigon Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh's mountain headquarters interacted and clashed often with surprising results Marr's book probes the ways in which war and revolution sustain each other tracing a process that will interest political scientists and sociologists as well as historians and Southeast Asia specialists 1945 the most significant year in the modern history of Vietnam One thousand years of dynastic politics and monarchist ideology came to an end Eight decades of French rule lay shattered Five years of Japanese military occupation ceased Allied leaders

Perverse Titillation Danny Shipka, 2011-07-25 The exploitation film industry of Italy Spain and France during the height of its popularity from 1960 to 1980 is the focus of this entertaining history With subject matter running the gamut from Italian zombies to Spanish werewolves to French lesbian vampires the shocking and profoundly entertaining motion pictures of the Eurocult genre are discussed from the standpoint of the films and the filmmakers including such internationally celebrated auteurs as Mario Bava Jess Franco Jean Rollin and Paul Naschy The Eurocult phenomenon is also examined in relation to the influences that European culture and environment have had on the world of exploitation cinema The author's insight and expertise contribute to a greater understanding of what made these films special and why they have remained so popular to later generations Italian Gothic Horror Films, 1957-1969 Roberto Curti, 2015-04-16 The Gothic style was a key trend in Italian cinema of the 1950s and 1960s because of its peculiar often strikingly original approach to the horror genre These films portrayed Gothic staples in a stylish and idiosyncratic way and took a daring approach to the supernatural and to eroticism with the presence of menacing yet seductive female witches vampires and ghosts Thanks to such filmmakers as Mario Bava Black Sunday Riccardo Freda The Horrible Dr Hichcock and Antonio Margheriti Castle of Blood as well the iconic presence of actress Barbara Steele Italian Gothic horror went overseas and reached cult status The book examines the Italian Gothic horror of the period with an abundance of previously unpublished production information drawn from official papers and original scripts Entries include a complete cast and crew list home video releases plot summary and the author s analysis Excerpts from interviews with filmmakers scriptwriters and actors are included The foreword is by film director and scriptwriter Ernesto Gastaldi Beast of '77 Remastered Edition Shawn A.
