Black Falcon Story Of Piracy Old New O:

The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians. While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available, they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s. In The New Orleans of Fiction: A Research Guide, James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980. The synopses include plot summaries, names of major characters, and an indication of physical settings. An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century, while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors, some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources. Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis, the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies, i.e., class, ethnicity, gender, immigrant experience, and race. The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading, particularly since genre, juvenile, and young adult fiction, as well as literary fiction, are included. Books and Notes, Los Angeles County Public Library, 1949

Books and Notes of the Los Angeles County Free Library, Los Angeles County Public Library, 1949 Catalog of Talking Books for the Blind, 1953 Children's Catalog, H.W. Wilson Company, 1961. The 1st ed. includes an index to v. 28-36 of St. Nicholas. People in Books, Margaret E. Nichol森, 1977 Enchantment of America, Marilyn M. Spore, 1962 A World to Discover, Matilda Bailey, Ullin Whitney Leavell, 1963 Newbery and Caldecott Medalists and Honor Book Winners, Muriel Brown, Rita Schoch Foudray, James W. Roginski, 1992. This is an enlarged version of the 1982 edition, updated to include the 1991 recipients. It offers the same inclusive listing of Newbery and Caldecott Medal and Honor Books, library collections with significant holdings, and background readings on each of the 325 award-winning authors and illustrators. The volume is organized by author, illustrator, and identifies the first appearance of each title. It also includes separate listings of Newbery Medal and Honor Books, Caldecott Medal and Honor Books, collections, a background reading bibliography, and an author-illustrator title index. It has a companion volume, Newbery and Caldecott Medal and Honor Books in Other Media, and the two books are also available as a set at a price of £72.00 Black Falcon, 1966
