The Female Nude Lynda Nead, 2002-09-11 Anyone who examines the history of Western art must be struck by the prevalence of images of the female body More than any other subject the female nude connotes art The framed image of a female body hung on the walls of an art gallery is an icon of Western culture a symbol of civilization and accomplishment But how and why did the female nude acquire this status The Female Nude brings together in an entirely new way analysis of the historical tradition of the female nude and discussion of recent feminist art and by exploring the ways in which acceptable and unacceptable images of the female body are produced and maintained renews recent debates on high culture and pornography The Female Nude represents the first feminist survey of the most significant subject in Western art It reveals how the female nude is now both at the centre and at the margins of high culture At the centre and within art historical discourse the female nude is seen as the visual culmination of enlightenment aesthetics at the edge it risks losing its respectability and spilling over into the obscene

Postcolonial Hauntologies: African Women's Discourses of the Female Body Ayo A. Cole, 2019-06-01

Postcolonial Hauntologies is an interdisciplinary and comparative analysis of critical literary visual and performance texts by women from different parts of Africa While contemporary critical thought and feminist theory have largely integrated the sexual female body into their disciplines colonial representations of African women's sexuality haunt contemporary postcolonial African scholarship which by maintaining a culture of avoidance about women's sexuality generates a discursive conscripted that ultimately holds the female body hostage Ayo A Coly employs the concept of hauntology and ghostly matters to formulate an explicative framework in which to examine postcolonial silences surrounding the African female body as well as a theoretical framework for discerning the elusive and cautious presences of female sexuality in the texts of African women In illuminating the pervasive silence about the sexual female body in postcolonial African scholarship Postcolonial Hauntologies challenges hostile responses to critical and artistic voices that suggest the African female body represents sacred ideological discursive ground on which one treads carefully if at all Coly demonstrates how ghosts from the colonial past are countered by discursive engagements with explicit representations of women s sexuality and bodies that emphasize African women s power and autonomy PostNegritude Visual and Literary Culture Mark A. Reid,1997-03-06 In the 1960s and 1970s the civil rights movement and other national and cultural movements fractured dominant paradigms of American identity and demanded a reformulation of American values and norms This book borrows the moral ethical and political purposes of these movements to show how film literature photography and television news broadcasts construct essentialist myths about race gender sexuality and nation It also examines how some visual and literary works and public reactions challenge these essentialist myths by exploring racial sexual and national anxieties Urban Space and Representation Maria Balshaw,Liam Kennedy,1999-12-20 Theories of urban space have become the focus of a great deal of work by scholars in cultural geography urban studies and critical theory This volume contributes to that debate by analysing the relationship between theories of urban space and literary and visual representations of the city an emergent area of confluence in literary film and cultural studies The contributors address themes such as visual culture and spectacle class and capital community and public space and nation diaspora and belonging Cities covered include New York Chicago Jerusalem Paris London Birmingham and Freetown Sierra Leone Artists and writers discussed include Piet Mondrian Nella Larsen Rudolph Fisher Amos Oz David Grossman Sarah Schulman Jonathan Larsen Charles Dickens Wilkie Collins Paul Auster and Wayne Wang The Bodies That Were Not Ours Coco Fusco,2013-10-11 Interdisciplinary artist and writer Coco Fusco is one of North America s leading interpreters of intercultural theory and practice This volume gathers together her finest writings since 1995 and includes critical essays by Jean Fisher and Caroline Vercoe that interpret her work Engaging and provocative these essays interviews performance scripts and fotonovelas take readers on a tour of our current multicultural landscape Fusco explores such issues as sex tourism in Cuba as a barometer of the island s entry into the global economy Frantz Fanon s theorization of metropolitan blackness and artistic and net activist responses to the effects of free trade on the Mexican populace She interviews such postcolonial personae as Isaac Julien Hilton Als and Tracey Moffatt Approaching the dynamics of cultural fusion from many angles Fusco s satires commentaries and sociological inquiries collapse boundaries and form a sustained meditation on how the forces of globalization impact upon the making of art

Pictures and Progress Maurice O. Wallace,Shawn Michelle Smith,2012-06-19 Pictures and Progress explores how

during the nineteenth century and the early twentieth prominent African American intellectuals and activists understood photography's power to shape perceptions about race and employed the new medium in their quest for social and political justice. They sought both to counter widely circulating racist imagery and to use self-representation as a means of empowerment. In this collection of essays, scholars from various disciplines consider figures including Frederick Douglass, Sojourner Truth, Ida B. Wells, Paul Laurence Dunbar, and W. E. B. Du Bois as important and innovative theorists and practitioners of photography. In addition, brief interpretive essays or snapshots highlight and analyze the work of four early African American photographers. Featuring more than seventy images, Pictures and Progress brings to light the wide-ranging practices of early African American photography as well as the effects of photography on racialized thinking. Contributors: Michael A. Chaney, Cheryl Finley, P. Gabrielle Foreman, Ginger Hill, Leigh Raiford, Augusta Rohrbach, Ray Sapiirstein, Suzanne N. Schneider, Shawn Michelle Smith, Laura Wexler, Maurice O. Wallace. Bouchardon Anne-Lise Desmas, Édouard Kopp, Guilhem Scherf, Juliette Trey, 2017-01-10. One of the most imaginative and fascinating artists of eighteenth-century France, Edme Bouchardon (1698–1762) was instrumental in the transition from Rococo to Neoclassicism and in the artistic rediscovery of classical antiquity. Much celebrated in his time, Bouchardon created some of the most iconic images of the age of Louis XV. His oeuvre demonstrates a remarkable variety of themes, from copies after the antique to subjects of history and mythology, portraiture, anatomical studies, ornament, fountains, and tombs, media, drawings, sculptures, medals, prints, and techniques, chalk, plaster, wax, terracotta, marble, bronze. With five essays by experts on Bouchardon's sculpture and graphic arts, more than 140 catalogue entries, and a detailed chronology, this book aims to demonstrate the originality of Bouchardon's art within the cultural and social context of the period while suggesting the subtle relationship between, as well as the relative autonomy of, the artist's two careers as a sculptor and a draftsman. This lavishly illustrated publication represents an unprecedented and thorough survey on this major and unique artist from the Age of Enlightenment, offering in-depth scholarship based on unpublished material.
