move us beyond social media They offer critical analyses and representations of the multiplicities of Black femmes girls and women s lived experiences Together the chapters demonstrate how Black girl magic is embodied by four elements enacted both on and offline building community challenging dehumanizing representations increasing visibility and offering restorative justice for violence Black Girl Magic Beyond the Hashtag shows how Black girls and women foster community counter invisibility engage in restorative acts and create spaces for freedom Intersectional and interdisciplinary the contributions in this volume bridge generations and collectively push the boundaries of Black feminist thought The Black Girl Next Door Jennifer Baszile,2009-01-13 Traces the author s coming of age in an exclusive white California suburb in the 1970s and 1980s describing the prejudices that minimized her family s achievements and her struggles to define herself as the black girl next door in light of her parents dreams Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando,Pamela A. Pears,2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the inter war period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume s essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one s home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Ta a Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Ta Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabile Far s Franco Algerian Leila Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda L How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference i can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present Ebony ,1977-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Refusing the Limits of Contemporary Childhood Julie C. Garlen,Neil T. Ramjewan,2023-12-11 Each of the essays in this collection considers what lies beyond the limiting discourses of childhood innocence Instead of focusing on how children grow up as has been the focus of developmental science for over a century we ask what it might mean for discourses of childhood to finally grow out of childhood innocence The authors featured in this volume explore this question through critical approaches that actively refuse the limits of normative and normalizing conceptions of the child by surfacing and centering complex multiplicitous configurations of childhood Together these perspectives challenge existing discourses and social practices to reveal how power operates in and through the child and its uses

Battle, 2019-08-29 Black Girlhood Punishment and Resistance Reimagining Justice for Black Girls in Virginia provides a historical comprehensive examination of racialized classed and gendered punishment of Black girls in Virginia during the early twentieth century It looks at the ways in which the court system punished Black girls based upon societal accepted norms of punishment hinged on a notion that they were to be viewed and treated as adults within the criminal legal system Further the book explores the role of Black Club women and girls as agents of resistance against injustice by shaping a social justice framework and praxis for Black girls and by examining the establishment of the Virginia Industrial School for Colored Girls This school was established by the Virginia State Federation of Colored Women s Clubs and its first President Janie Porter Barrett This book advances contemporary criminological understanding of punishment by locating the historical origins of an environment normalizing unequal justice It draws from a specific focus on Janie Porter Barrett and the Virginia Industrial School for Colored Girls a groundbreaking court case of the first female to be executed in Virginia historical newspapers and Black Women s Club archives to highlight the complexities of Black girls experiences within the criminal justice system and spaces created to promote social justice for these girls The historical approach unearths the justice system s role in crafting the pervasive devaluation of Black girlhood through racialized gendered and economic based punishment Second it offers insight into the ways in which historically Black women have contributed to what the book conceptualizes as resistance criminology offering policy implications for transformative social and legal justice for Black girls and girls of color
