Years And Beyond Faith Identity And The Common Era:

2000 Years and Beyond ,2004 2000 Years and Beyond Paul Gifford,2003 A detailed historical account of the emergence of economic history as an academic discipline in England told through a combination of biography institutional change and the history of scientific thought and methodology 2000 Years and Beyond David Archard,Trevor A. Hart,Nigel Rapport,Paul Gifford,2003-09-02 A detailed historical account of the emergence of economic history as an academic discipline in England told through a combination of biography institutional change and the history of scientific thought and methodology Pentecostalism in Africa ,2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa s religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power Cultural Entrepreneurship in Africa Ute Röschenthaler,Dorothea Schulz,2015-11-19 This book seeks to widen perspectives on entrepreneurship by drawing attention to the diverse and partly new forms of entrepreneurial practice in Africa since the 1990s Contrary to widespread assertions figures of success have been regularly observed in Africa since pre colonial times The contributions account for these historical continuities in entrepreneurship and identify the specifically new political and economic context within which individuals currently probe and invent novel forms of enterprise Based on ethnographically contextualized life stories and case studies of female and male entrepreneurs the volume offers a vivid and multi perspectival account of their strategies visions and ventures in domains as varied as religious proselytism politics tourism media music prostitution funeral organization and education African cultural entrepreneurs have a significant economic impact attract the attention of large groups of people serve as role models for many youths and contribute to the formation of new popular cultures Why Progressives Need God , Christianity, Wealth, and Spiritual Power in Ghana Karen Lauterbach,2016-11-25 This book centers around mid level charismatic pastors in Ghana Karen Lauterbach analyzes pastorship as a pathway to becoming small big men and achieving status wealth and power in the country The volume investigates both the social processes of becoming a pastor and the spiritual dimensions of how power and wealth are conceptualized achieved and legitimized in the particular context of Asante in Ghana Lauterbach integrates her analysis of charismatic Christianity with a historically informed examination of social mobility how people in subordinate positions seek to join up with power She explores how the ideas and experiences surrounding the achievement of wealth and performance of power are shaped and re shaped In this way the book historicizes current expressions of charismatic Christianity in Ghana while also bringing the role of religion and belief to bear on our understanding of wealth and power as they function more broadly in African societies Christian Politics in Oceania Matt Tomlinson, Debra L. McDougall, 2013 The phrase Christian politics evokes two meanings political relations between denominations in one direction and the contributions of Christian churches to debates about the governing of society The contributors to this volume address Christian politics in both senses and argue that Christianity is always and inevitably political in the Pacific Islands Drawing on ethnographic and historical research in Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu and Fiji the authors argue that Christianity and politics have redefined each other in much of Oceania in ways that make the two categories inseparable at any level of analysis The individual chapters vividly illuminate the ways in which Christian politics operate across a wide scale from interpersonal relations to national and global interconnections

Theory from the South Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2015-11-17 As nation states in the Northern Hemisphere experience economic crisis political corruption and racial tension it seems as though they might be evolving into the kind of societies normally associated with the Global South Anthropologists Jean and John Comaroff draw on their long experience of living in Africa to address a range of familiar themes democracy national borders labour and capital and multiculturalism They consider how we might understand these issues by using theory developed in the Global South Challenging our ideas about developed and developing nations Theory from the South provides new insights into key problems of our time

Limping But Blessed Ton van Prooijen, 2004 For Jurgen Moltmann theological anthropology must be liberating It should take a stand against dehumanizing images and concepts of human life and point out ways to true humanity In his view a theologian can develop such a liberating anthropology only if he speaks explicitly from the perspective of God's kingdom as conceived in the Bible and the Christian tradition and if he speaks to and in his context as one who experiences contemporary sufferings and hopes But how This book analyzes the development of Moltmann's theology in the light of this quest for a liberating view on human life It examines the anthropological concerns in the different stages of his theological enterprise his post war Trummertheologie the loose theological threads of the 1950s his theology of hope and promise in the 1960s his theology of the cross human rights and play in the 1970s and his ecological and charismatic theology of the 1980s and 1990s Moltmann's theological thinking has taken place consciously at the intersection of personal experiences historical challenges biblical testimony and the fundamentals of the Christian tradition Analyzing his quest for a liberating anthropology in a chronological way this study therefore gives an impression of the frictions and fault lines of Christian anthropology in the context of the societal changes during the second half of the twentieth century A concluding chapter discusses some of the problems accentuated in the course of this analysis and evaluates some valuable leads for a Christian anthropology today TON VAN PROOIJEN submitted this study as his doctoral dissertation at the Free University of Amsterdam His current research interests include anthropology and politics particularly the concept of humankind in Christian Democratic political
