Thomas Griffiths

2004 Australian Culture Now Catalogue:

2004 Charles Green, 2004 Australia's creative output has a particular vivacity and audacity. This is evident in this snapshot of exciting contemporary pieces by 114 artists and artists' groups producing art, craft, cinema, video and digital media art created with the notion that anyone near the cutting edge expects the rules of the game and perspectives to keep Current, 2008. Current Contemporary Art From Australia and New Zealand is the first comprehensive survey of all that is cutting edge in Australian and New Zealand contemporary practice. In a landmark publication, the book features eighty artists carefully chosen to best reflect the vibrancy of art of the moment. While Current could be seen as a hot list of contemporary taste in the tradition of Taschen's Art Now, inclusivity is the book's abiding theme. Current is also underpinned by scholarship with commissioned essays by the region's leading writers and curators. Current's beautifully designed pages are filled with many names familiar to followers of contemporary art, including Paddy Bedford, Simryn Gill, Ah Xian, Tracey Moffatt, Shaun Gladwell and Del Kathryn Barton, along with some of the region's freshest new talents such as Benjamin Armstrong, Monica Tichacek, Rohan Wealleans, Francis Upritchard and Sean Cordeiro. Claire Healy's photograph of the contents of a German apartment wrapped in orange twine graces the book's front cover. Current captures the unique essence of contemporary practice in Australia and New Zealand, charged with the dynamic between Indigenous, western and Asian cultures. The eighty selected artists encompass a diversity of culture and subject and employ every available medium from painting, photography and performance to installation and video art. Current's contextual essays are written by leading authorities in their fields, including Robert Leonard, Victoria Lynn, Justin Paton, Rachel Kent, Nick Waterlow and Brenda L. Croft, who has convened an important roundtable of Indigenous curators to explore the question of the contemporary within Aboriginal art. Australian Culture Now Catalogue 2004, 2004.

Art and Globalization James Elkins, Zhivka Valiavicharska, Alice Kim, 2010. Brings together historians, philosophers, critics, postcolonial theorists and curators to ask how contemporary global art is conceptualized. Issues discussed include globalism and globalization, internationalism and nationality, empire and capitalism. Provided by publisher.

Premier of Queensland's National New Media Art Award

2010 Russell Storer, 2010. This publication features the work of leading new media artists invited to participate in the 2010 Premier of Queensland's National New Media Art Award, Australia's most significant prize for new media art. The exhibition and Award is presented every two years and the winning works become part of the Queensland Art Gallery's permanent collection. The 2010 short-listed artists are Philip Brophy, Chris Howlett, Van Sowerwine and Isobel Knowles Wade, Marynowsky Soda_Jerk and Lynette Wallworth. The 52-page publication includes 4-page essays on each of the short-listed artists as well as exhibition histories and bibliographies. The Award exhibition showcases new and recent works by each artist that express challenging and innovative approaches to the use of media, including video, digital animation and gaming, robotics, sound and interactive technologies. The New McCulloch's Encyclopedia of Australian Art Alan McCulloch, Susan

McCulloch, Emily McCulloch Childs, 2006 Widely regarded as the authoritative reference on Australian art with its extensive colour plates and 4500 entries Fully illustrated with more than 700 images on 1200 pages Entries include Aboriginal art Abstractionism art links sculptors photographers craft workers and printmakers and much more Australian English - The National Language Gerhard Leitner, 2013-02-06 Australia's English raises many questions among experts and the general public What is it like How has English changed by being transplanted to other parts of the world Does the rise of AusE and other varieties endanger the role of English as a world language Past studies have often been selective focusing on the esoteric and non typical and ignoring the contact situation in which Australian English has developed This book and its companion Australia's Many Voices Ethnic Englishes Indigenous and Migrant Languages Policy and Education develop and apply a comprehensive and integrative approach that anchors English in the entire habitat of Australia's languages that it both upset and transformed Based on a wide range of data and on the assumption that all manifestations of Australian English must cohere as a system this book retraces the social psycholinguistic and linguistic history of the language It locates the contact with indigenous and migrant languages and with American English in the appropriate sociohistorical context and shows how several layers of migration have shaped it As it stratified it was gradually accepted and developed into a fully fledged national variety or epicentre of English that could be raised to the status of national language Implications on educational policy and attempts to reach out into the Asia Pacific region have followed logically from national status The study is of interest for specialists of English and Australian Studies as well as a range of other disciplines Its discursive non technical style and presentation makes it accessible to non specialists with no background in linguistics Interesting Times Russell Storer, 2005 Its thematic focus is on the varied ways artists in Australia today convey social and political ideas through their work This catalogue is an important component of the project contextualising the exhibition with a range of commissioned writing that includes thematic essays on each participating artist Au3 Venice Biennale 2007 Susan Norrie, 2007 Flash Art, 2004
