2005 Sappho Guide To Europe:

Sappho's Legacy Marina Karides, 2021-04-01 Winner of the 2023 Gourmand Cookbook Award for Greece in the Women Category Imaginatively interweaving literatures across a variety of subjects Sappho's Legacy identifies the crucial role that islands and Greek economic culture play in teaching about capitalism's failures and alternatives Marina Karides delivers a historical and ethnographic account of food cooperatives and microenterprises on the Greek island of Lesbos following the 2008 financial crisis to reveal the success stories of grassroots traditional and community centered economics organized by people marginalized on the basis of gender sexuality and ethnicity Karides offers hope to others who are working against the tide of neoliberalism and heteropatriarchy to develop alternative or convivial economic practices that serve communities by providing a trail of rhythms from ancient times to the present that showcase Greece's historical resistance 2005 Sappho Guide to Europe Sappho Editorial Team, 2004-12 Fully updated and revised in 2004 The Sappho's Guide includes over 2 200 important and interesting addresses of bars clubs groups helplines organisations hotels and saunas Information on shopping facilities for the queer community is also included and the guide also features over 1 600 websites and many useful phone numbers and addresses for gay organisations There is also a schedule of lesbian events that take place throughout Europe

Sappho and Catullus in Twentieth-Century Italian and North American Poetry Cecilia Piantanida, 2021-01-14 Going beyond exclusively national perspectives this volume considers the reception of the ancient Greek poet Sappho and her first Latin translator Catullus as a literary pair who transmit poetic culture across the world from the early 20th century to the present Sappho's and Catullus reception has shaped a transnational network of poets and intellectuals helping to define ideas of origins gender sexuality and national identities This book shows that across time and cultures translations and rewritings of Sappho and Catullus articulate modernist poetics of myth and fragmentation forms of confessionalism and post modern pastiche The inquiry focuses on Italian and North American poetry as two central yet understudied hubs of Sappho's and Catullus modern reception also linked by a rich mutual intellectual exchange key case studies include Giovanni Pascoli Ezra Pound H D Salvatore Quasimodo Robert Lowell Rosita Copioli and Anne Carson and cover a wide range of unpublished archival material Texts are analysed and compared through reception and translation theories and inserted within the current debate on the Classics as World Literature demonstrating how sustained transnational poetic discourse employs the ancient pair to expand notions of literary origins and redefine poetry's relationship to human existence Hearing Sappho in New Orleans Ruth Salvaggio, 2012-06-13 While sifting through trash in her flooded New Orleans home Ruth Salvaggio discovered an old volume of Sappho's poetry stained with muck and mold In her efforts to restore the book Salvaggio realized that the process reflected how Sappho's own words were unearthed from the refuse of the ancient world Undertaking such a task in New Orleans she sets out to recover the city's rich poetic heritage while searching through its flooded debris Hearing Sappho in New Orleans is at once a meditation on this poetic city its many languages and cultures and a history of its forgotten poetry Using Sappho s fragments as a guide Salvaggio roams the streets and neighborhoods of the city as she explores the migrations of lyric poetry from ancient Greece through the African slave trade to indigenous America and ultimately to New Orleans The book also directs us to the lyric call of poetry the voice always in search of a listener Writing in a post Katrina landscape Salvaggio recovers and ponders the social consequences of the long song lyric chants especially the voices of women lost in time as it resonates from New Orleans s poetic sites like Congo Square where Africans and Indians gathered in the early eighteenth century to the modern day Maple Leaf Bar where poets still convene on Sunday afternoons She recovers for example an all but forgotten young Creole woman named L l and leads us all the way up to celebrated contemporary writers such as former Louisiana poet laureate Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein Nicole Cooley and Katherine Soniat Hearing Sappho in New Orleans is a reminder of poetry s ability to restore and secure fragile and fragmented connections in a vulnerable and imperiled world Dialogism and Lyric Self-fashioning Jacob Blevins,2008-08 These essays engage multiple elements of dialogism including the convergence of masculine and feminine voices public and private discourses intertextuality and the voices of the past the dialogue between literature and art and the always present dialogue between speaker s and reader s BOOK JACKET Fiske Guide to Colleges 2005 Edward B. Fiske,2004 This annual guide to more than 300 colleges and universities has been the indispensable source of information for thousands of students parents and counselors The New Frontiers of Jihad Alison Pargeter,2008-06-25 Following the terrorist attacks on London and Madrid radical Islam is presumed to be an increasingly potent force in Europe Yet beneath the media hysteria very little is actually known about it What radical movements are there How do they operate What is driving them Who are their recruits What is their relationship if any to Al Qaeda Alison Pargeter has spent three years interviewing radical Islamists throughout Europe to find answers to these questions She examines how radical ideology travels from East to West and how the two contexts shape each other She finds that contrary to what some analysts have claimed the European Muslim community has not become radicalised en masse What has happened is that in a globalised world Middle Eastern power struggles are now being played out in the mosques of Birmingham Paris and Milan This is a must read book for anyone who wants to know the real story of the jihad which has apparently arrived in our back yard European Literary History Maarten De Pourcq,Sophie Levie,2018-02-28 This clear and engaging book offers readers an introduction to European Literary History from antiquity through to the present day Each chapter discusses a short extract from a literary text whilst including a close reading and a longer essay examining other key texts of the period and their place within European Literature Offering a view of Europe as an evolving cultural space and examining the mobility and travel of literature both within and out of Europe this guide offers an introduction to the dynamics of major literary networks international literary networks publication cultures and debates and the cultural history of Europe as a region as well as a concept The European Roman d'Analyse Adele Kudish,2020-01-23 Through close readings of a selection of European novels and novellas written between 1340 and 1827 this study of analytical fiction examines how unconsummated love stories probe the frailty of self knowledge Tracing elements of what the French call the roman d analyse in the works of Boccaccio Marguerite de Navarre Cervantes Marie de Lafayette Samuel Richardson Jane Austen and Stendhal Adele Kudish discusses how the metaphor of unconsummated love is deployed to represent a fundamental lack of insight into the self Rather than depicting the mind as transparent analytical fiction deals in the opacity of the mind Narrators and characters are faced with deception misprision doubt and confusion leading to self deception jealousy and crises of self The European Roman d Analyse reads such epistemological failures as symptoms of a more fundamental preoccupation with the human psyche as un chartable and bizarre In this way the authors of romans d analyse enact a larger philosophical project an anatomy of the psyche wherein we are unable or unwilling to know ourselves

Beauty and the Gods Hugo Shakeshaft, 2025-03-25 A history of the origins of the classical ideal of beauty in archaic Greece To look like a Greek god is proverbial for beauty today just as it was for Homer nearly three thousand years ago In this book Hugo Shakeshaft tells the untold story of beauty s inextricable link with the divine in this formative era of ancient Greek history c 750 480 BCE Through in depth analysis of a wide array of ancient sources the book offers a panoramic view of the Archaic Greek world in arguing that ideas of beauty were fundamental to how Greeks thought about and worshipped their gods Surveying everything from Homeric epic lyric poetry and votive inscriptions to vase paintings sculpture and the architecture of Greek temples Shakeshaft reveals how ideas and experiences of beauty structured human relations with the divine in Archaic Greece Comparisons are made throughout the book with the literature art and architecture of the diverse cultures of the ancient Near East to clarify its insights into Archaic Greece These comparisons highlight that the association of beauty and the divine has been at the heart of many societies throughout human history despite its oversight in the lively debate about beauty in academia and the art world in the twenty first century With a novel contribution to this debate and the history of aesthetics the book uncovers an aspect of ancient Greek history with an enduring legacy showing how we still live with the cultural dialogue which originated in this period
