300 Years Of Education In South Africa:

300 Years of Education in South Africa Edward George Pells, 1954 Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06-01 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education Culture, Education, and Development in South Africa Ali A. Abdi, 2001-10-30 With the fall of apartheid in South Africa expectations were high for the enfranchisement of the acutely underdeveloped majority in South Africa But problems abound and this educational study looks critically at the educational situation and puts forth a number of proposals that could produce better results in contemporary South Africa Abdi urges that beyond the celebratory platforms of the political triumph over apartheid there must be effective and culturally inclusive programs of education for the development of the highly disenfranchised majority in South Africa Deliberate programs of colonialism and apartheid in South Africa resulted in inferior education cultural marginalization political oppression economic exploitation and resulting underdevelopment in the lives of the disenfranchised majority In addition to historical and contemporary analysis this study looks at the possibilities of formulating and implementing new programs of education and development that could effectively deal with such current problems as chronic unemployment skyrocketing crime rates stagnating learning systems and the continuing formations of a huge underclass that may be losing its stake in the promised post apartheid project The Statesman's Year-Book 1962 S. Steinberg, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Changing Histories Ryôta Nishino, 2011 The teaching of history in South African and Japanese schools has attracted sustained criticism for the alleged attempts to conceal the controversial aspects of their countries past and to inculcate ideologies favourable to the ruling regimes This book is the first attempt to systematically compare the ways in which education bureaucracy in both nations dealt with opposition and critics in the period from ca 1945 to 1995 when both countries were dominated by single party governments for most of the fifty years The author argues that both South African and Japanese education bureaucracy did not overtly express its intentions in the curriculum documents or in the textbooks but found ways to enhance its authority through a range of often subtle measures A total of eight themes in 60 officially approved Standard 6 South African and Japanese middle school history textbooks have been selected to demonstrate the changes and continuity This work hopes to contribute to the existing literature of comparative history by drawing lessons that would probably not have emerged from the study of either country by itself The Statesman's Year-Book 1965-66 S. Steinberg,2016-12-26 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Statesman's Year-Book 1964-65 S. Steinberg,2016-12-26 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Statesman's Year-Book S. Steinberg,2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world International Politics ,1956 The Black Worker of South Africa Gerhard Max Erich Leistner,W. J. Breytenbach,1975 A man builds a tree house by a river in anticipation of the coming flood A young woman is almost killed when a sugar beet crashes through her windscreen A boy sets fire to a barn A father is arrested when he tries to watch his daughter s school nativity play
