Air Force Magazine , 2003 Air Force and Space Digest , 2003 First in the Field Ron Mackay, 2007 First in the Field is a relevant title to describe the pioneer force destined to operate a hitherto un tested concept in modern aerial warfare the 1st Bomb Division The initial period of shallow penetration missions with a severely under strength force of B 17s crews and support equipment was followed by growing and finally unsupportable losses Nevertheless from early 1944 onward it was becoming clear that what was by then the 1st Bomb Division had held its ground often against painful tactical and strategic odds and in doing so had laid the foundations for the final victory of

Miller, 2003 Here for the first time is the story of the 356th Fighter Group which flew in the European Theater of Operations during the Second World War This 9th Air Force unit spent over two years in England occupying the airfield at Martlesham Heath in the county of Suffolk Originally entering combat flying P 47 Thunderbolts and later switching to P 51 Mustangs the 356th dispatched its aircraft on 407 missions across the Channel Between the time of the first on October 15 1943 and the final mission on May 7 1945 the 356th was credited with destroying 277 enemy planes As the principle of bomber escort was strictly adhered to by the 356th's leaders pilots of the group often had to pass up opportunities to engage enemy fighters and increase their scores While this fact helped earn the 356th a reputation as being a hard luck outfit due to their low victory to loss ratio the gratitude and praise from the bomber crews more than offset this misnomer
