3 Transcriptions Violin Piano Great Performers Edition:

Complete keyboard transcriptions of concertos by baroque composers Johann Sebastian Bach, 1987-01-01 Early in his career Bach began to transcribe for the keyboard a number of concertos for violin oboe and other instruments by such baroque masters as Vivaldi and Telemann His purpose to study and explore the works of other composers as well as to supply good clavier music for his own performances This collection of sixteen of these celebrated transcriptions is reprinted from the definitive Bach Gesellschaft edition prepared by Ernst Naumann and presented in a study format designed to give amateur and professional pianists and harpsichordists a lifetime of pleasurable study and use Six of these glorious keyboard works are known to be transcriptions of Vivaldi violin concertos Three are based on concertos written by Duke Johann Ernst of Saxe Weimar the son of Bach's employer at Weimar One is based on a violin concerto by Telemann another on an oboe concerto by Alessandro Marcello and another on a concerto by Benedetto Marcello The sources of the remaining works are unknown Vivaldi whose music Bach probably first heard in 1712 was to provide a strong influence on the young composer Bach would eventually assimilate the Italian's style and use it with his own contrapuntal heritage and the Northern idiom in creating what we recognize today as the typical Bach style These transcriptions which represent his introduction to the new idiom richly display a dynamic virtuosity that makes their performance an exhilarating experience The Chesterian

Wilhelm Ernst: Virtuoso Violinist Mark Rowe, 2017-07-05 From 1840 57 Heinrich Ernst was one of the most famous and significant European musicians and performed on stage often many times with Berlioz Mendelssohn Chopin Liszt Wagner Alkan Clara Schumann and Joachim It is a sign of his importance that in 1863 Brahms gave two public performances in Vienna of his own and Ernst's music to raise money for the now mortally ill violinist Berlioz described Ernst as one of the artists whom I love the most and with whose talent I am most sympathetic while Joachim was in no doubt that Ernst was the greatest violinist I ever heard he towered above the others Many felt that he surpassed the expressive and technical achievements of Paganini but Ernst unlike his great predecessor was also a tireless champion of public chamber music and did more than any other early nineteenth century violinist to make Beethoven's late quartets widely known and appreciated Ernst was not only a great virtuoso but also an accomplished composer He wrote two of the most popular pieces of the nineteenth century the Elegy and the Carnival of Venice and he is best known today for two solo pieces which represent the ne plus ultra of technical difficulty the transcription of Schubert's Erlking and the sixth of his Polyphonic Studies the variations on The Last Rose of Summer Perhaps he made his greatest contribution to music through his influence on Liszt's outstanding masterpiece the B minor piano sonata In 1849 Liszt conducted Ernst playing his own Concerto Path que a substantial single movement work in altered sonata form using thematic transformation Soon after this performance Liszt wrote his Grosses Konzertsolo 1849 50 his first extended single movement work using altered sonata form and thematic transformation This is now universally acknowledged to be the immediate forerunner of the sonata which refines and develops all these techniques Liszt made his debt clear when three years after completing it, 1877 Three transcriptions Nathan Milstein, 1980 The Violin Times ,1895 The Strad ,1903 Monthly musical record ,1884 MTR; Music Trades Review
