At The Spanish Dukes Command:

The King at the Edge of the World Arthur Phillips, 2021-05-11 Queen Elizabeth's spymasters recruit an unlikely agent the only Muslim in England for an impossible mission in a mesmerizing novel from one of the best writers in America The Washington Post Evokes flashes of Hilary Mantel John le Carr and Graham Greene but the wry tricky plot that drives it is pure Arthur Phillips The Wall Street Journal NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW AND THE WASHINGTON POST The year is 1601 Queen Elizabeth I is dying childless Her nervous kingdom has no heir It is a capital crime even to think that Elizabeth will ever die Potential successors secretly maneuver to be in position when the inevitable occurs The leading candidate is King James VI of Scotland but there is a problem The queen's spymasters hardened veterans of a long war on terror and religious extremism fear that James is not what he appears He has every reason to claim to be a Protestant but if he secretly shares his family's Catholicism then forty years of religious war will have been for nothing and a bloodbath will ensue With time running out London confronts a seemingly impossible question What does James truly believe It falls to Geoffrey Belloc a secret warrior from the hottest days of England's religious battles to devise a test to discover the true nature of King James's soul Belloc enlists Mahmoud Ezzedine a Muslim physician left behind by the last diplomatic visit from the Ottoman Empire as his undercover agent The perfect man for the job Ezzedine is the ultimate outsider stranded on this cold wet and primitive island He will do almost anything to return home to his wife and son Arthur Phillips returns with a unique and thrilling novel that will leave readers questioning the nature of truth at every turn

Governing Elite of the Spanish Monarchy, 1640-1665 Alistair Malcolm, 2016-12-06 Royal Favouritism and the Governing Elite of the Spanish Monarchy 1640 1665 presents a study of the later years of the reign of Philip IV from the perspective of his favourite valido don Luis M ndez de Haro and of the other ministers who helped govern the Spanish Habsburg Monarchy It offers a positive vision of a period that is often seen as one of failure and decline Unlike his predecessors Haro exercised the favour that he enjoyed in a discreet way acting as a perfect courtier and honest broker between the king and his aristocratic subjects Nevertheless Alistair Malcolm also argues that the presence of a royal favourite at the head of the government of Spain amounted to a major problem The king s delegation of his authority to a single nobleman was considered by many to have been incompatible with good kingship and Philip IV was himself very uneasy about failing in his responsibilities as a ruler Haro was thus in a highly insecure situation and sought to justify his regime by organizing the management of a prestigious and expensive foreign policy In this context the eventual conclusion of the very honourable peace with France in 1659 is shown to have been as much the result of the independent actions of other ministers as it was of a royal favourite very reluctantly brought to the negotiating table at the Pyrenees By conclusion the quite sudden collapse of Spanish European hegemony after Haro s death in 1661 is represented as a delayed reaction to the repercussions of a flawed system of government

Historic Tales, The Romance of Reality: American, Spanish American, English, German, French, Spanish, Russian, Scandinavian, Greek, Roman, Japanese and Chinese, King Arthur (Complete) Charles Morris, The year 1000 A D was one of strange history Its advent threw the people of Europe into a state of mortal terror Ten centuries had passed since the birth of Christ The world was about to come to an end Such was the general belief How it was to reach its end whether by fire water or some other agent of ruin the prophets of disaster did not say nor did people trouble themselves to learn Destruction was coming upon them that was enough to know how to provide against it was the one thing to be considered Some hastened to the churches others to the taverns Here prayers went up there wine went down The petitions of the pious were matched by the ribaldry of the profligate Some made their wills others wasted their wealth in revelry eager to get all the pleasure out of life that remained for them Many freely gave away their property hoping by ridding themselves of the goods of this earth to establish a claim to the goods of Heaven with little regard to the fate of those whom they loaded with their discarded wealth It was an era of ignorance and superstition Christendom went insane over an idea When the year ended and the world rolled on none the worse for conflagration or deluge green with the spring leafage and ripe with the works of man dismay gave way to hope mirth took the place of prayer man regained their flown wits and those who had so recklessly given away their wealth bethought themselves of taking legal measures for its recovery Such was one of the events that made that year memorable There was another of a highly different character Instead of a world being lost a world was found The Old World not only remained unharmed but a New World was added to it a world beyond the seas for this was the year in which the foot of the European was first set upon the shores of the trans Atlantic continent It is the story of this first

discovery of America that we have now to tell In the autumn of the year 1000 in a region far away from fear haunted Europe a scene was being enacted of a very different character from that just described Over the waters of unknown seas a small strange craft boldly made its way manned by a crew of the hardiest and most vigorous men driven by a single square sail whose coarse woollen texture bellied deeply before the fierce ocean winds which seemed at times as if they would drive that deckless vessel bodily beneath the waves This crew was of men to whom fear was almost unknown the stalwart Vikings of the North whose oar and sail driven barks now set out from the coasts of Norway and Denmark to ravage the shores of southern Europe now turned their prows boldly to the west in search of unknown lands afar Shall we describe this craft It was a tiny one in which to venture upon an untravelled ocean in search of an unknown continent a vessel shaped somewhat like a strung bow scarcely fifty feet in length low amidships and curving upwards to high peaks at stem and stern both of which converged to sharp edges It resembled an enormous canoe rather than aught else to which we can compare it On the stem was a carved and gilt dragon the figurehead of the ship which glittered in the bright rays of the sun Along the bulwarks of the ship fore and aft hung rows of large painted wooden shields which gave an Argus eyed aspect to the craft Between them was a double row of thole pins for the great oars which now lay at rest in the bottom of the boat but by which in calm weather this walker of the seas could be forced swiftly through the yielding element
