The Last Christian David Gregory, 2010-05-04 In the future it's possible to live forever but at what cost A D 2088 Christian missionary Abigail Caldwell emerges from the jungle for the first time in her thirty four years the sole survivor of a mysterious disease that killed her village A curious message from her grandfather leads Abby to America only to discover a nation where Christianity has completely died out But a larger threat looms The world's leading artificial intelligence industrialist has perfected a technique for downloading the human brain into a silicon form. Brain transplants have begun and with them comes the potential of eliminating physical death altogether. As Abby navigates a society grown more addicted to stimulating the body than nurturing the soul, she and Creighton Daniels, a historian troubled by his father's unexpected death, become unwitting targets of powerful men who will stop at nothing to further their nefarious goals. Hanging in the balance is the spiritual future of all humanity. In this fast-paced thriller, startling near-future science collides with thought-provoking religious themes to create a spell-binding what-if novel.

Cognitive Aspects of Virtual Reality Ildikó Horváth, Borbála Berki, Anna Sudár, Ádám Csapó, Péter Baranyi, 2024-11-16. This book outlines a range of user experiments providing comprehensive evaluations that underline the rationale behind implementing collaborative 3D virtual offices in corporate settings and 3D classrooms in educational institutions. In this book, radically new scientific approaches are taken for studying user effectiveness in the realm of 3D graphical interfaces. The emergence of VR is seen in the book as a pivotal moment in the evolution of information technology, marking a shift from the era of DOS and Windows to immersive digital spaces. Through extensive research and experimentation, it is convincingly demonstrated that integrating 2D user interfaces such as windows, images, and 2D widgets into 3D digital environments significantly enhances user effectiveness in terms of online collaboration, memory recall, and comprehension of complex workflows. Moreover, valuable advice and design principles are offered to guide the creation of such working 3D digital environments.

The Future of the Office, with a New Afterword by the Author Peter Cappelli, 2025-06-17. A GLOBE MAIL BEST BUSINESS BOOK OF 2021. Now with an updated introduction and a new afterword by the author. The COVID-19 pandemic forced an unprecedented experiment that reshaped white-collar work and turned remote work into a kind of new normal. A little over a year into the pandemic, with vaccines more widely available, employers began to think about bringing employees back to the office. Both employers and employees had great trepidation about what the future held. Into this fraught moment stepped Wharton professor Peter Cappelli with The Future of the Office, which provided employers and employees with guidance as they faced urgent decisions with limited information. Cappelli's insights have proven remarkably prophetic and provide valuable insights for those wrestling with these issues today. In an updated introduction, Cappelli reminds readers where we were at that historical inflection point and what was at stake. He offers insight into what today's readers can take away from the book and why the questions raised a year into the pandemic still apply today. In an all-new afterword, Cappelli shares what we have learned since the book first published. Employers, he says, have failed to grapple with the hardest challenges about remote work and remain in a state of indecision, often prioritizing financial results over employee well-being. Employees want to keep remote work in the mix, but evidence shows that these arrangements are not working as well as the in-person alternative. He offers insights that have the potential to positively transform the way we work. But he cautions that the challenges and our questions about what works are sure to linger for a long time. Whether you're an executive crafting
