Beezley, Linda Ann Curcio, 2012 This unique reader offers an engaging collection of essays that highlight the diversity of Latin America's cultural expressions from independence to the present Leading historians explore funerals dance and music letters and literature spectacles and monuments and world's fairs and food These themes and events highlight the ways in which a wide range of individuals with copious at times contradictory motives attempted to forge identity turn the world upside down mock their betters forget their troubles through dance express love in letters and altogether enjoy life The authors analyze case studies from Argentina Brazil the Dominican Republic Ecuador Mexico Nicaragua Peru and Trinidad Tobago tracing how their examples resonate in the rest of the region They show how people could and did find opportunities to escape if only occasionally their daily drudgery making lives for themselves of greater variety than the constant quest for dominance drive for profits or knee jerk resistance to the social or economic order so often described in cultural studies Instead this rich text introduces the complexity of motives behind and the diversity of expressions of popular culture in Latin America Contributions by Sal Acosta Thomas L Benjamin John Charles Chasteen Dari n J Davis Lauren Robin H Derby Matthew D Esposito Ingrid E Fey Stephen Jay Gould Graham E L Horton Fanni Mu oz Cabrejo Blanca Muratorio Jeffrey M Pilcher Janet Sturman and Pamela Voekel Experiencing Music and Visual Cultures Antonio Cascelli, Denis Condon, 2021-01-31 Bringing the research of musicologists art historians and film studies scholars into dialogue this book explores the relationships between visual art forms and music The chapters are organized around three core concepts threshold intermediality and synchresis which offer ways of understanding and discussing the interplay between the arts of sounds and images Refuting the idea that music and visual art forms only operate in parallel the contributors instead consider how the arts of sound and vision are entwined across a wide array of materials genres and time periods Contributors delve into a rich variety of topics ranging from the art of Renaissance Italy to the politics of opera in contemporary Los Angeles to the popular television series Breaking Bad Placing these chapters in conversation this volume develops a shared language for cross disciplinary inquiry into arts that blend music and visual components integrates insights from film studies with the conversation between musicology and art history and moves the study of music and visual culture forward Strange Pilgrimages Ingrid Elizabeth Fey, Karen Racine, 2000 This fascinating collection of essays and articles shows how Latin Americans travels and residency

Flamenco on the Global Stage K. Meira Goldberg, Ninotchka Devorah Bennahum, Michelle Heffner Hayes, 2015-10-05 The language of the body is central to the study of flamenco From the records of the Inquisition to 16th century literature to European travel diaries the Spanish dancer beguiles and fascinates The word flamenco evokes the image of a sensuous and rebellious woman the bailaora whose movements seduce the audience only to reject their attention with a stomp of defiance The dancer's body is an agent of ideological resistance conveying a conflicting desire for subjectivity and autonomy and implying deeply held ideas about history national identity femininity and masculinity This collection of new essays provides an overview of flamenco scholarship illuminating flamenco's narrative and chronology and addressing some common misconceptions The contributors offer fresh perspectives on age old themes and suggest new paradigms for flamenco as a cultural practice Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The Sublime South Jose Luis Venegas, 2018-07-15 The Sublime South Andalusia Orientalism and the Making of Modern Spain is the first systematic study on cultural images of Andalusia as Spain's Orient and the impact they have had on nation building and modernization since the late nineteenth century While a wealth of studies have examined how northern Europeans from the Romantic period viewed Spain and Andalusia as Europe's Orient little attention has been paid to how contemporary

Spanish artists and intellectuals assimilated Romantic legacies to engage in an internal form of orientalism Jos Luis Venegas deftly explores Spain's shifting engagements with oriental identity and otherness by looking not just beyond national ethnic and racial borders but at a territory that is institutionally embedded in the nation state while symbolically placed between inclusion and abjection The Sublime South shifts the focus and scale of Edward Said's notion of orientalism by examining how it evolves and manifests transnationally as the result of European colonialism in Africa and Asia and intra nationally in a European yet orientalized country Finally Venegas challenges ethnocentric notions of Iberian cultures and fosters an understanding of the encounters between Western and Muslim cultures beyond opposing and often mutually negating essentialisms

From Tejano to Tango Walter Aaron Clark, 2013-02-01 Author of two books on Isaac Albéniz including Isaac Albéniz A Guide to Research 1998 Walter Aaron Clark has compiled thirteen essays that discuss the various aspects of Latin American music The essays cover the social and political impact the music generated as well as the rhythmic development of the various genres In this essential book significant personalities including Carmen Miranda are discussed The scope of the contributors is vast as divergent musical styles such as the Macarena dance craze Bob Marley's reggae music and the seductive strains of the tango are analyzed

The Tide Was Always High Josh Kun, 2017-09-26 In 1980 the celebrated new wave band Blondie headed to Los Angeles to record a new album and along with it the cover song The Tide Is High originally written by Jamaican legend John Holt Featuring percussion by Peruvian drummer and veteran LA session musician Alex Acuña and with horns and violins that were pure LA mariachi by way of Mexico The Tide Is High demonstrates just one of the ways in which Los Angeles and the music of Latin America have been intertwined since the birth of the city in the eighteenth century The Tide Was Always High gathers together essays interviews and analysis from leading academics artists journalists and iconic Latin American musicians to explore the vibrant connections between Los Angeles and Latin America Published in conjunction with the Getty's Pacific Standard Time LA LA the book shows how Latin American musicians and music have helped shape the city's culture from Hollywood film sets to recording studios from vaudeville theaters to Sunset Strip nightclubs and from Carmen Miranda to Pérez Prado and Juan García Esquivel

Falangist and National Catholic Women in the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939) Angela Flynn, 2020-03-11 Although there is an established historiography on women's roles during the Spanish Civil War 1936-9 little has been written on Nationalist women in the Republican held zones Women were the anti-Republican resisters of the first hour in the capital but they have been largely overlooked in the historical record During the bitter civil conflict a sector of dissident women helped to create a subversive and clandestine national Catholic space in the heart of Republican Madrid By examining the vital and invisible role played by women within Madrid's fifth column this monograph offers a new contribution to the gender historiography of the Spanish Civil War and re-evaluates the significance of women in the Nationalist war effort It explores how and why a sector of Falangist and Catholic women decided to mobilise against the legally constituted Popular Front government in support of an undemocratic military coup

While women's subversive activities often involved the transgression of traditional gender norms their social and political agency arose within the conditions and precepts of Catholicism and was conceptualised and imagined within new national Catholic discourses of holy Crusade
