Abildgaard Kunst 2 Vol Set:

A Social History of Modern Art, Volume 2 Albert Boime, 1993-05-15 In this second volume Albert Boime continues his work on the social history of Western art in the Modern epoch This volume offers a major critique and revisionist interpretation of Western European culture history and society from Napoleon's seizure of power to 1815 Boime argues that Napoleon manipulated the production of images as well as information generally in order to maintain his political hegemony He examines the works of French painters such as Jacques Louis David and Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres to illustrate how the art of the time helped to further the emperor's propagandistic goals He also explores the work of contemporaneous English genre painters Spain's Francisco de Goya the German Romantics Philipp Otto Runge and Caspar David Friedrich and the emergence of a national Italian art Heavily illustrated this volume is an invaluable social history of modern art during the Napoleonic era Stimulating and informative this volume will become a valuable resource for faculty and undergraduates R W Liscombe Choice The Art and Culture of Scandinavian Central Europe, 1550-1720 Kristoffer Neville, 2019-08-08 Politically and militarily powerful early modern Scandinavia played an essential role in the development of Central European culture from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century In this volume Kristoffer Neville shows how the cultural ambitions of Denmark and Sweden were inextricably bound to those of other Central European kingdoms Tracing the visual culture of the Danish and Swedish courts from the Reformation to their eventual decline in the eighteenth century Neville explains how and why they developed into important artistic centers He examines major projects by figures largely unknown outside of Northern Europe alongside other more canonical artists including Cornelis Floris Adriaen de Vries and Johann Bernhard Fischer von Erlach to propose a more coherent view of this part of Europe one that rightly includes Scandinavia as a vital component The seventeenth century has long seemed a bleak moment in Central European culture Neville's authoritative and unprecedented study does much to change this perception showing that the arts did not die in the Reformation and Thirty Years War but rather flourished in the Baltic region The Avant-garde in Danish and European Art 1909-19 Dorthe Aagesen, Hanne Abildgaard, Martin Zerlang, Rikke Warming, 2002 Playing with Fire James David Draper, Guilhem Scherf, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 European sculptors of the Neoclassical period often modelled their works in clay before producing finished pieces in marble This book offers a comprehensive overview of Neoclassical terracotta models by European artists featuring the works of Pajou Houdon and Canova among many others Art, the Ape of Nature Moshe Barasch, Lucy Freeman Sandler, Patricia Egan, 1981 Art in Rome in the Eighteenth Century Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, 2000 Caught between the Theatricality of the Baroque and the acute sensibility of Romanticism art in Rome in the eighteenth century has long been a neglected area of study The grand scale and spectacular diversity of the period are comprehensively captured for the first time in this definitive history of the period produced to accompany a major U S exhibition organized by the Philadelphia Museum of Art and The Museum of Fine Arts Houston and
