

1976 NT Aboriginal Land Rights Act

This Act recognised aboriginal rights to land and sets up processes to win back their land through Land Councils, and manage its resources.

The Land Rights Act sets down detailed procedures for:

- the negotiation of mining agreements on Aboriginal land and the application of laws for mining on Aboriginal land;
- funding of Land Councils through the Aboriginal Benefits Account (previously Aboriginal Benefits Reserve);
- a number of minor but important provisions, such as roads and entry onto Aboriginal land, protection of sacred sites and protection of traditional rights over land; and
- the application of NT laws and complementary NT legislation.
