Alexander Cameron Rutherford

Alberta Our Province:

Alberta's Finances Alexander Cameron Rutherford, 1908 1996 Proceedings: Eighty-Seventh Annual Convention of Rotary International , Industrial Canada , 1929 Report of the Proceedings of the Annual Convention of the Western Canada Irrigation Association Western Canada Irrigation Association, 1909 Martin's Papyrus, Devoted to the Printing and Allied Trades of Western Canada , 1919 Developing Alberta's Oil Sands Paul Anthony Chastko, 2004 Alberta's oil sands represent a vast and untapped oil reserve that could reasonably supply all of Canada's energy needs for the next 475 years. With an estimated 300 billion barrels of recoverable oil at stake, the quest to develop this natural resource has been undertaken by many powerful actors both nationally and internationally. Using research that integrates the economic, political, scientific, and business factors that have been influential in discovering and developing the sands, this book provides a comprehensive history of the oil sands project and a window on the nature of the complex relationships between industry, government, and transnational players. This book is the first comprehensive volume that examines the origins and development of the oil sands industry over the last century. Costly Fix Ian Thomas Urquhart, 2018-01-01 Costly Fix addresses core questions about the Alberta oil sands boom that started in the 1990s. Why did this flood of investment pour into the oil sands of northern Alberta? What role has government played with respect to the oil sands rush, and why? Who benefited, and who or what has paid the costs of exploiting the oil sands? By analyzing the interest, ideas, and institutions involved in the oil sands boom, Ian Urquhart charts its development from the beginning to the present. In this process, we learn about the state's role in making the oil sands profitable, the environmental dimensions of oil sands development, and First Nations' roles in both opposing and supporting the industry. The final chapter examines the extent to which Alberta's new NDP government, in its first eighteen months, altered the legacies it inherited from the Progressive Conservatives on royalties, tailings reservoirs, and climate change. Hand-book of Information International Farm Congress of America, 1910 Citizenship as a Regime Mireille Paquet, Nora Nagels, Aude-Claire Fourot, 2018-07-02 State building is an ongoing process that first defines legitimate citizenship and then generates citizens. Political analysts and social scientists now use the concept of citizenship as a lens for considering both the evolution of states and the development of their societies. In Citizenship as a Regime, leading political scientists from Canada, Europe, and Latin America use insights from comparative politics, institutionalism, and political economy to understand and analyze the dynamics of contemporary politics and politics. This book celebrates Jane Jenson's work and many of her contributions to political science and the study of Canadian politics. Featuring Jenson's concept of citizenship regime, the collected chapters consider its theoretical and methodological underpinning and presents new applications to various empirical contexts. Contributors present original research, critically assess the idea of a citizenship regime, and suggest ways to further develop Jane Jenson's notion of a citizenship regime as an analytical tool. Research essays in this volume consider various social forces and dynamics such as neoliberalism inequality LGBTQ movements the rise of populism amid nationalist movements in multinational societies including Indigenous self determination claims and how they transform the politics of citizenship These collected contributions by former students collaborators and colleagues of Jenson highlight her lasting influence on the contemporary study of citizenship in Canada and elsewhere Contributors include Marcos Ancelovici UQ M James Bickerton St Francis Xavier University Maxime Boucher Universit de Montr al Neil Bradford Huron University College Alexandra Dobrowolsky Saint Mary s University Pascale Dufour Universit de Montreal Jane Jenson Universit de Montr al Rachel Laforest Queen s University Rianne Mahon Wilfrid Laurier University B reng re Marques Pereira Universit Libre de Bruxelles Martin Papillon Universit de Montr al Denis Saint Martin Universit de Montr al and Miram Smith York University Agricultural Gazette of Canada Canada.
