Hero in the Shadows David Tossell, 2021-11-15 Don Howe is one of English football's great coaches with an unrivalled record at international and club level As right hand man to three England managers he helped his country to the 1990 World Cup and Euro 96 semi finals He helped to steer them through the 1982 World Cup unbeaten and to the quarter finals four years later Howe masterminded the 1970-71 double at Arsenal where two spells as coach also brought European and further

FA Cup glory He was also an integral part of one of the greatest Wembley upsets when he helped Wimbledon's Crazy Gang to victory over the mighty Liverpool in 1988 As a player at West Bromwich Albion Howe won 24 international caps but as a manager he failed to achieve the success he craved Yet over a three decade period he won acclaim from many of England's finest players as a genius of the coaching profession Through interviews with players colleagues friends and family this book examines the triumphs and challenges of Don Howe's career and assesses his contribution to English football The Fabulous Baker Boys Tom Maxwell,2013-10-06 With a total of more than 500 goals in careers that saw them turn out for the likes of Hibernian St Mirren Arsenal Chelsea Manchester City and Torino Joe and Gerry Baker are two of the greatest strikers Scotland ever had While Liverpool born Hibs legend Joe became the first man to make his England debut having never played in the English league his US born brother Gerry a hero of St Mirren's Scottish Cup winning side of 1959 was the first top flight European footballer to turn out for the USA Even though he spoke with a broad Scottish accent Joe was in Alf Ramsey's initial squad for the 1966 World Cup With unprecedented access to the Baker family archives including contributions from Gerry Baker and the late Joe's son Colin The Fabulous Baker Boys is a unique tale of Scotland's most celebrated sporting siblings and contains exclusive interviews with the likes of Denis Law Lawrie Reilly John Robertson Alex Young Pat Stanton Bob Wilson and George Eastham Stokoe, Sunderland and 73 Lance Hardy,2011-01-20 50th anniversary edition of the story of the team that caused the last great FA Cup upset Times have changed but this book is an engrossing reminder for all fans INDEPENDENT ON SUNDAY An essential piece of British football history for fans of any club Brilliantly researched and written with an undisguised passion Guy Mowbray BBC's Match of the Day Today it seems inconceivable that a team from the lower reaches of the Championship could beat the likes of Chelsea or Manchester United in the FA Cup Final Yet on 5 May 1973 that is exactly what happened Six months earlier Bob Stokoe took on an ailing Sunderland team struggling at the bottom of the second division But the long road to Wembley sees them beating Arsenal and Manchester City to reach the final where they face Don Revie's mighty Leeds United in a game few expect them to win Yet what lies ninety minutes ahead is the greatest FA Cup Final shock of all time Sunderland's victory was arguably the last fairytale of recent footballing times In STOKOE SUNDERLAND AND 73 Lance Hardy talked with ten of the Sunderland players who turned out at Wembley that day and to the family of Bob Stokoe to produce the definitive account of an unforgettable game Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner,2012-09-27 Television and sport is the ultimate marriage of convenience The two circled each other warily for a while sport anxious the sofa bound might spurn the live product TV reluctant in a limited channel world to hand over too much screen time to flannelled fools and muddled oafs But they got together and stayed together for the sake of the money and now you cannot imagine one without the other They are indivisible like an old couple sitting in a tearshop finishing each other's sentences and there is little doubt which is the dominant partner You have only to think of the recent sports stars who have left their muddy fields to don sequins grab partners and tango their way across the stage in ultimate Saturday night television style to see how far the two have come on their journey together In Sit Down and Cheer Martin Kelner traces the development of this relationship from its humble origins in the 1960 Olympics by way of the first ever Match of the Day in 1964 through to the financial impact of Sky right up to the high tech gadgetry of our present day viewing Insightful and very funny this is an entertaining exploration of two major national pastimes and not to be missed

Black Night for Bomber Command Richard Knott, 2007-07-01 I am not pressing you to fight the weather as well as the Germans never forget that So wrote Winston Churchill to Arthur Harris the Commander in Chief of RAF Bomber Command after the terrible events of 16 December 1943 In the murky dusk almost five hundred heavy bombers almost entirely Lancasters set out for Berlin from their bases in eastern England from north Yorkshire to southern Cambridgeshire They lifted off at around 4 pm to bomb the target four hours later and were expected to return at midnight 328 aircrew lost their lives that night they were the victims of the weather not the Germans This book relates the tragic circumstances of individual crews as they struggled to find their home bases in low cloud and fog It also includes stories from the local people who remember hearing a low flying aircraft and all too often the frightful explosion as it struck unexpected high ground or even trees Some rescue attempts were successful but for most aircrew it was death in a blazing wreck Many of the crash sites have been explored by the author as he tried to imagine exactly how each aircraft came to grief It contains many photos of aircraft as they were and the remaining impact areas that remain to this day
