

THE REAL BOB DYLAN

He was born Robert Allen Zimmerman in Duluth, Minnesota. He surfaced in Greenwich Village near twenty years later, with a name and a past of his own invention. He went on to become the most influential — and elusive — culture hero of our time, an antenna for the age.

This is the first full story of Dylan, from the many sources. From those who have known him through his many changes, from Joan Baez to the Beatles, David Byrne to himself. It is a rare, intimate portrait of a great American artist.

Each of us has a Dylan inside. Adolescent, rebellious, behind those eyes, those surges, those apocalyptic visions, or not so hysterical, erupting out of his angers and anxieties of an entire generation.
