Blue Fire E.C. Blake, 1901 From the author of the acclaimed fantasy trilogy The Masks of Agyrima published by DAW Books comes another epic YA fantasy adventure Centuries ago the people of Nevyana were forced to leave their old kingdom across the sea after it was devastated by the War of the Twelve Gods The only three Gods to survive that war Vekrin of the Earth Arrica of the Sun and Ell of the Moon agreed to leave the affairs of men alone but not until they gave their followers a few final magical Gifts Vekrin and Arrica gave their followers the gift of Blue Fire a powerful force that could provide light heat and protection or be turned into a powerful weapon But Ell chose instead to utterly transform her followers into the almost feline Nightdwellers nocturnal creatures with fur teeth and claws Enmity quickly arose among the three groups and now the Nightdwellers rule the night killing any ordinary humans they catch out after sunset Vekrin's followers became the Citydwellers retreating behind stout walls of stone protected by the Blue Fire powered firelances of the Priests And Arrica's followers became the Freefolk able to travel through the wilderness protected by a Fence of Blue Fire but always in danger of Nightdweller attack When sacred objects for channelling Blue Fire are stolen three sworn enemies Petra of the Citydwellers Amlinn of the Freefolk and Jin of the Nightdwellers set out to find them and their paths converge on a collision course with the truth Can they bridge the centuries old divisions among their communities Or will their search for the truth and the explosive power of Blue Fire signal the end of Nevvana

The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, Kelly-Anne Riess, 2018-10-01 Volume 3 shifts its focus to Regina's literary culture and to the coming generation of younger writers but it continues to examine the best work from Saskatchewan The impact the relevance the illuminations of our best writers work tend to move well beyond the borders of our province This work transcends the regional sources of its inspiration Just as Marilynne Robinson has much to say to Canadians about the disruptions and the graces of family life Dianne Warren has much to say to Americans about the omnipresence of the past the shadows it casts on people's lives in the present Many of our best books are nurtured by the history and the life of this province but they spring into literature roughly in proportion to their applications and their immemorial responses to the human condition

Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province

The Inter-Galactic Playground Farah Mendlesohn, 2009-07-15 Science fiction is often considered the genre of ideas and imagination which would seem to make it ideal for juveniles and young adults however the ideas are often dispensed by adults This book considers the development of science fiction for children and teens between 1950 and 2010 exploring why it differs from science fiction aimed at adults In a broader sense this critical examination of 400 texts sheds light on changing attitudes toward children and teenagers toward science education and toward the authors expectations and sociological views of their audience
