Animal Health Training and Consultancy Service, 2011-04 This edition has not revised any of the content from the Fourth Edition but has produced the textbook and the medicine book in one smaller pocket edition of the English translation copyright 2011 We believe that this material developed and tested for over 30 years by AHTCS in Nepal is of value to farmers and those who work with them in many contexts outside Nepal Through provision of this pocket English edition we hope to make this resource more widely available This book is intended to accompany a training program for village animal health workers and not to stand alone without participatory hands on training Animal Health Care Training - Nepal's

Animal Health Improvement Training Programme John Young, 1994 Presents the findings of a training project in Nepal which teaches basic animal health care techniques to Nepalese villagers Ten years later an evaluation was conducted to determine whether there was a continuing need for the courses and to assess their effectiveness This book describes the course structure content and approach and presents the finding of the evaluation offering an insight into a programme which could usefully be replicated in other rural areas all over the world Learning Together Susan Stewart, 2011-04-25
