Boardman Tasker Omnibus:

The Boardman Tasker Omnibus Peter Boardman, Joe Tasker, 1995 Collects four out of print classic climbing books Tasker's Savage Arena and Everest the Cruel Way and Boardman's The Shining Mountain and Sacred Summits Boardman Tasker Omnibus - Savage Arena and Everest the Cruel Way; the Shini Sir Chris Bonington, 2012 The Measure of a Mountain Bruce Barcott, 2011-02-01 A provocative highly original profile of Mount Rainier capturing the majestic beauty and deadly allure of one of the largest active volcanoes in the U S Jon Krakauer author of Into Thin Air Mount Rainier is one of the largest and most dangerous volcanoes in the country both an awesome natural monument and a formidable presence of peril In The Measure of a Mountain Seattle writer Bruce Barcott sets out to grasp the spirit of Rainier through an exploratory meandering and deeply personal journey along its massive flanks From forest to precipice thinning air to fractured glaciers he explores not only the physique of Rainier but the psychology and meaning of all mountains and the deep connection that exists between humans and landscape What he finds is a complex of moss bearded hemlocks and old growth firs high meadows that blossom according to a precise natural timeclock sheets of crumbling pumice fractured glaciers and unsteady magma Rainier's snow fields bristle with bug life and its marmots chew rocks to keep their teeth from overgrowing The mountain rumbles with seismic twitches and jerks seeing one hundred thirty earthquakes annually Rainier is an obsession a temple that attracts its own passionate acolytes from scientists and priests to rangers and mountain guides as well as a monument to death Referred to by locals as simply the mountain it is the single largest feature of the Pacific Northwest landscape provided it isn't hidden in clouds Visible or not though Rainier's presence is undeniable Filled with adventure poignant personal reflections and fascinating mountain lore told by Indian chiefs professional guides priests and scientists The Measure of a Mountain is one man's stirring quest to reconcile with a dazzling creation of nature at once alluring and sometimes deadly Dark Summit Nick Heil, 2011-04-13 In the tradition of Jon Krakauer's Into Thin Air Nick Heil recounts the harrowing story of the deadly and controversial 2006 climbing season on Everest In early May 2006 a young British climber named David Sharp lay dying near the top of Mount Everest while forty other climbers walked past him on their way to the summit A week later Lincoln Hall a seasoned Australian climber was left for dead near the same spot Hall's death was reported around the world but the next day he was found alive after spending the night on the upper mountain with no food and no shelter If David Sharp's death was shocking it was not singular despite unusually good weather ten others died attempting to reach the summit that year In this meticulous inquiry into what went wrong Nick Heil tells the full story of the deadliest year on Everest since the infamous season of 1996 He introduces Russell Brice the outfitter who has done more than anyone to provide access to the summit via the mountain's north side and who some believe was partially responsible for Sharp's death As more climbers attempt the summit each year Heil shows how increasingly risky expeditions and unscrupulous outfitters threaten to turn Everest into a deadly circus Written by an experienced climber and outdoor writer

Dark Summit is both a riveting account of a notorious climbing season and a troubling investigation into whether the pursuit of the ultimate mountaineering prize has spiralled out of control      Escape Routes David Roberts,1998-08-01 A collection of the author's favorite twenty adventure stories from the last eleven years      The Mammoth Book of On The Edge Jon E. Lewis,2012-03-01 No one sees clearer than an individual whose life is hanging by the finger tips on the edge of an abyss Probing the furthest reaches of human daring and endurance here are 28 of the great first hand accounts of extreme mountaineering from legendary names Written by the bestselling author of Meadowland and The Running Hare Featuring Heinrich Harrer first conqueror of the notorious Eigerwand Robert Bates the classic account of the ill fated American 1953 expedition to K2 Maurice Herzog his unstoppable ascent of Annapurna at the cost of frostbite Walter Bonatti tragedy on the Central Pillar of Freney on Mont Blanc George Leigh Mallory surviving an avalanche on the 1922 Everest expedition Ren Desmaison his epic story of 14 days stuck on The Grandes Jorasses in winter Jon Krakauer recalling his solo ascent of The Devil's Thumb in Alaska The price of the summit is often measured in human suffering yet for those who succeed the rewards can be incalculable Nerve wracking and unputdownable      Mountains, Mobilities and Movement Christos Kakalis,Emily Goetsch,2017-09-25 This book explores the moving qualities of mountains by utilising theories ideas and processes which contribute to a larger understanding of these geological forms In highlighting the fluid attributes of mountains the authors offer an alternative to the traditional approach of the sciences and the humanities which address mountains as static geological or geographical features The essays in this collection posit that movement impacts the relationship between society and mountains travelling landscape objects constructing design and artistic translations climbing and experiencing changing atmospheres and the different ways of seeing from mountain peaks and that physical intellectual and spiritual motion is integral to their understanding This innovative collection will be of great interest to scholars of geography art architecture history theology and philosophy      Performing Mountains Jonathan Pitches,2020-04-02 Launching the landmark Performing Landscapes series Performing Mountains brings together for the first time Mountain Studies and Performance Studies in order to examine an international selection of dramatic responses to mountain landscapes Moving between different registers of writing the book offers a critical assessment of how the cultural turn in landscape studies interacts with the practices of environmental theatre and performance Conceived in three main parts it begins by unpicking the layers of disciplinary complexity in both fields before surveying the rich history and practice of rituals playtexts and site specific works inspired by mountains The last section moves to a unique analysis of mountains themselves using key concepts from performance training scenography acting and spectatorship Threaded throughout is a very personal tale of mountain research offering a handrail or alternative guide through the book      The Cambridge History of Travel Writing Nandini Das,Tim Youngs,2019-01-24 Bringing together original contributions from scholars around the world this volume traces the history of travel writing from antiquity to the Internet age It examines travel texts of several national or linguistic traditions introducing readers to the global contexts of the genre From wilderness to the urban from Nigeria to the polar regions from mountains to rivers and the desert this book explores some of the key places and physical features represented in travel writing Chapters also consider the employment in travel writing of the diary the letter visual images maps and poetry as well as the relationship of travel writing to fiction science translation and tourism Gender based and ecocritical approaches are among those surveyed Together the thirty seven chapters here underline the richness and complexity of this genre Thin Air Michelle Paver, 2016-10-06 The Himalayas 1935 Kangchenjunga The sacred mountain Biggest killer of them all Five Englishmen set out to conquer it But courage can only take them so far And the higher they climb the darker it gets
