WHAT TO EXPECT

The Body Ecology Diet starves candida yeast, eases yeast and rebalances your digestive health. Many people feel much better at first. However, as the yeast die off they can feel fatigue and symptoms often reappear. This is temporary. The body must get rid of the excess waste and toxins caused by these pathogens so enemas and colons are highly recommended to accelerate detoxification. Even if you don't feel like it take a long walk or do some form of gentle activity like yoga or rebounding. Keep your body moving.

Support your body during the detoxification process by eating plenty of cleansing fermented foods, including cultured cruciferous veggies and coconut water kefir.

Our emotional attachment to certain foods, especially sugar and gluten, make it difficult to give them up at first. Be gentle with yourself and remember your commitment to your own health. Each day is new and you set your own unique pace.

SNACK IDEAS

- Body Ecology Smoothie: 1 scoop Vitality Super-Green™ mix with 8 ounces of coconut water kefir and a few drops of Stevia Liquid Concentrate™.
- Roll up some cultured veggies inside a slice of turkey or roast beef.
- Slice an avocado in half and fill the center with cultured veggies then top with olive oil, lemon juice, and dulse flakes.
