A Ripple A Wave The Story Of Union Organization In The Bc Fishing Industry:

A Ripple, a Wave George North, 1974      Development of the Pacific Salmon-Canning Industry Dianne Newell, 1989 The Pacific salmon fishery and the canning industry it supports have recently lost their status as the one of the most valuable fisheries in the world In this study of early modern business Dianne Newell discusses the beginning of the North American salmon canning industry working from archives left by one of the leaders in the field Henry Doyle      The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada s external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline      We Stood Together Gloria Montero, 1979-01-01 Here are the stories of twelve of Canada s outstanding labour leaders and organizers Their accounts tell the behind the scenes story of some of the key events in the twentieth century Canadian history from the 1919 Winnipeg General Strike the 1935 On to Ottawa trek of the unemployed which played a major role in the defeat of Tory Prime Minister R B Bennett and the 1945 Ford strike in Windsor which consolidated the rights of big industrial unions through to the 1972 Common Front of Quebec s public sector workers      The Tsimshian Margaret Seguin, 1993 This volume examines Tsimshian culture from the prehistoric period to the recent past and includes contributions from such diverse perspectives as archaeology linguistics and social anthropology The contributors demonstrate a balance between current fieldwork and careful archival analysis as they build on the voluminous materials that are a legacy of the scholarship of such major figures as Boas Barbeau Tate and Garfield The book includes chapters on the crest system and participation of the Tsimshian in the non Native economy of the region and introduces much original material on shamanism basket making and feasting

Militant Minority Benjamin Isitt, 2011-01-01 Militant Minority tells the compelling story of British Columbia workers who sustained a left tradition during the bleakest days of the Cold War Through their continuing activism on issues from the politics of timber licenses to global questions of war and peace these workers bridged the transition from an Old to a New Left In the late 1950s half of B C s workers belonged to unions but the promise of postwar collective bargaining spawned disillusionment tied to inflation and automation A new working class that was educated white collar and increasingly rebellious shifted the locus of activism from the Communist Party and Co operative Commonwealth Federation to the newly formed New Democratic Party which was elected in 1972 Grounded in archival research and oral history Militant Minority provides a valuable case study of one of the most organized and independent working classes in North America during a period of ideological tension and unprecedented material advance      Nikkei in the Pacific Northwest Louis Fiset, Gail M. Nomura, 2011-10-01 Challenging the notion that Nikkei individuals before and during World War II were helpless pawns manipulated by forces beyond their control the diverse essays in this rich collection focus on the theme of resistance within Japanese American and Japanese Canadian communities to twentieth century political cultural and legal discrimination They illustrate how Nikkei groups were mobilized to fight discrimination through assertive legal challenges community participation skillful print publicity and political and economic organization Comprised of all new and original research this is the first anthology to highlight the contributions and histories of Nikkei within the entire Pacific Northwest including British Columbia      Raising the Workers' Flag Stephen Endicott, 2012-09-07 During the Great Depression the conflicting interests of capital and labour became clearer than ever before Radical Canadian workers encouraged by the Red International of Labour Unions responded by building the Workers Unity League an organization that greatly advanced the cause of unions in Canada and boasted 40 000 members at its height In Raising the Workers Flag the first full length study of this robust group Stephen L Endicott brings its passionate efforts to light in memorable detail Raising the Workers Flag is based on newly available or previously untapped sources including documents from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police s Security Service and the Communist Party s archives Using these impressive finds Endicott gives an intimate sense of the raging debates of the labour movement of the 1930s A gripping account of the League s dreams and daring Raising the Workers Flag enlivens some of the most dramatic struggles of Canadian labour history      Working People, Fifth Edition Desmond Morton, 1999-01-13 From the dock workers of Saint John in 1812 to teenage crews at McDonald s today Canada s trade union movement has a long exciting history Working People tells the story of the men and women in the labour movement in Canada and their struggle for security dignity and influence in our society Desmond Morton highlights the great events of labour history the 1902 meeting that enabled international unions to dominate Canadian unionism for seventy years the Winnipeg General Strike of 1919 and an obscure 1944 order in council that became the labour s charter of rights and freedoms He describes the romantic idealism of the Knights of Labor in the 1880s and looks at new model unions that used their members dues and savings to fight powerful employers Working People explores the clash between idealists who fought for socialism industrial democracy and equality for women and men and the realists who wrestled with the human realities of self interest prejudice and fear Morton tells us about Canadians who deserve to be better known Phillips Thompson Helena Gutteridge Lynn Williams Huguette Plamondon Mabel Marlowe Madeleine Parent and a hundred others whose struggle to reconcile idealism and reality shaped Canada more than they could ever know      Strange New Country Geoff Meggs, 2018-04-21 Salmon gillnetting in the turbulent waters of the Fraser River at the turn of the last century was dangerous back breaking work Skiffs were equipped with a single sail but most maneuvering had to be accomplished by oars an almost impossible task against any current or tide Once towed to the grounds by a cannery tug the fishermen were on their own for at least twelve hours casting their 400 metre long nets out and pulling them back by hand Their only shelter was a partial tent over the bow Many came to grief on dark windy nights as they blew out of the main channel to the mudflats of the estuary or worse the open waters of the Strait of Georgia When the powerful Fraser River Cannery Association fixed the maximum price per salmon at 15 cents fishermen united in their determination to win a decent living Their strike shut down British Columbia's second largest export industry and effectively resulted in the imposition of martial law as the cannerymen frustrated by political deadlock in Victoria called out the militia without government assent to achieve their ends The strike has long been understood as a watershed moment in the province's industrial history In this revealing chronicle Geoff Meggs shows it was even more than that Other strikes in that era may have lasted longer many were more violent but none drew such diverse groups Indigenous Japanese white into an uneasy short term but effective coalition While united by the common goal of economic equality strikers were divided by forceful social pressures First Nations fishermen wished to assert their Indigenous rights Japanese fishermen having fled poverty in their homeland were seeking equality and opportunity in a new country white fishermen were angered by the greed of the tiny clique of wealthy Vancouver industrialists who controlled the salmon industry This maelstrom came together in Steveston a ramshackle clapboard and cedar shake cannery boom town that blossomed into one of the province's largest cities for a few hectic months each summer In this compelling account told with journalistic flair and vivid detail Meggs leaves no room for doubt this event marked BC's turn into the modern era with lessons about inequality racism immigration and economic power that remain relevant today
