

THE BIBLE'S PROMISE STRUCTURE

From, "Putting it Together" | www.biblethunder.net | © Brent Hunter, 2011

The Bible is the true story of everything, centered on God's plan to redeem a people to His presence through Jesus Christ to the praise of His glorious grace. God created the world good and He created human beings in His image, to be His people, to enjoy His presence, and to spread His presence throughout the world. When Adam rebelled against God, the human race was plunged into sin and death, and was banished from His presence. God put a curse on creation but promised that a son of Eve would set everything right. God chose to unfold His plan of redemption over a great period of time in order to clarify the human problem and magnify His own grace. Many sons came and went. A series of promises called "covenants" made to chosen individuals were the vehicle through which God decided to carry His initial promise in Genesis 3:15 to its fulfillment in Jesus Christ and ultimately, in the New Creation. These divine covenants progressively unfold God's redemptive plan and introduce various persons, events, and institutions, which lead to Jesus Christ (Exodus, Sacrifice, Passover, Sabbath, Circumcision, Tabernacle, Temple, Prophet, Priest, King, Ruler, Lord, etc.). Jesus Christ is God's promise-fulfiller. Today, God's new-covenant people in Christ are spreading God's covenant all over the earth by making disciples of every nation.
