Biblical Faith And Other Religions An Evangelical Assessment:

Biblical Faith and Other Religions David Weston Baker, 2004 In this collection of essays six leading scholars bring contemporary insights from their areas of expertise to the widely debated topic of how biblical faith relates to other religions and how we can explain what we believe to our pluralistic world

Revelation in Christian Theologies of Religions Iain McGee, 2024-06-04 What are non Christian religions How is God related to them How do they relate to Christianity In this original book Iain McGee explores five Christian theologians answers to these questions The study spans the history of the church covering figures from four different continents Justin Martyr Augustine John Calvin Jonathan Edwards and Daniel Strange Focusing on the revelation religion interface in the writings of these scholars McGee outlines and analyzes their varied understandings of Logos illumination the prisca theologia and the demonic alongside the relationships between them and their impact on non Christian religion McGee forwards an argument that each theology can be considered a biblically informed contextually reflective and reactive response to significant religious challenges faced by these Christian thinkers in their attempts to demonstrate the uniqueness of the Christian faith

A Trinitarian Theology of Religions Gerald R. McDermott, Harold A. Netland, 2014-04-17 How are Christians to think of non Christian religions How are they to relate to people who do not share their faith Two senior scholars survey the field of theology of religions from an evangelical perspective and propose fresh approaches to long debated questions such as salvation revelation the relationship between culture and religion conversion and social action

Communities of Faith in Africa and the African Diaspora Casely B. Essamuah, David K. Ngaruiya, 2014-01-13 Communities of Faith is a collection of essays on the multicultural Christian spirit and practices of churches around the world with particular attention to Africa and the African diaspora The essays span history theology anthropology ecumenism and missiology Readers will be treated to fresh perspectives on African Pentecostal higher education Pentecostalism and witchcraft in East Africa Methodist camp meetings in Ghana Ghanaian diaspora missions in Europe and North America gender roles in South African Christian communities HIV AIDS ministries in Uganda Japanese funerary rites enculturation and contextualization principles of mission and many other aspects of the Christian world mission With essays from well known scholars as well as young and emerging men and women in academia Communities of Faith illuminates current realities of world Christianity and contributes to the scholarship of today's worldwide Christian witness

An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga, Thomas R. Thompson, Matthew D. Lundberg, 2022-11-03 Far from being solely an academic enterprise the practice of theology can pique the interest of anyone who wonders about the meaning of life This introduction to Christian theology exploring its basic concepts confessional content and history emphasizes the relevance of the key convictions of Christian faith to the challenges of today's world Part I introduces the project of Christian theology and sketches the critical context that confronts Christian thought and practice today Part II offers a survey of the key doctrinal themes of Christian theology including revelation the triune God and the world as creation identifying their biblical basis and the highlights of their historical development before giving a systematic evaluation of each theme Part III provides an overview of Christian theology from the early church to the present Thoroughly revised and updated the second edition of An Introduction to Christian Theology includes a range of new visual and pedagogical features including images diagrams tables and more than eighty text boxes which call attention to special emphases observations and applications to help deepen student engagement From Seed to Fruit (Revised and Enlarged Second Edition) J. Dudley Woodberry, 2008-06-01 The revised and enlarged second edition of J Dudley Woodberry's From Seed to Fruit expands on the next stage of the ongoing collaborative research and reflections of many people from many organizations desiring to bless Muslims Seven additional chapters survey major trends in global Islam today and explore themes that prove to have considerable influence on fruitfulness including a new chapter on building Christlike relationships with Muslims The Global Trends Research Group has continued to update the demographic materials on Muslim people groups their access to Christian witness and when and how Christian groups covenant to provide meaningful access From Seed to Fruit presents the most recent worldwide research on witness to Christ among Muslim peoples using biblical images from nature to show the interaction between God's activity and human responsibility in blessing these peoples Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions Christian Exegesis of the Qur'an Scott Bridger, 2016-03-31 Can Christians read biblical meaning into quranic texts Does this violate the intent of those passages What about making positive reference to the Qur'an in the context of an evangelistic presentation or defence of biblical doctrines Does this imply that Christians accept the Muslim scripture as inspired What about Christians who reside in the world of Islam and write their theology in the language of the Qur'an Arabic Is it legitimate for them to use the Qur'an in their explorations of the Christian faith This book explores these questions and offers a biblically theologically and historically informed response For years evangelical Christians seeking answers to questions like these have turned to the history of Protestant Christian interaction with Muslim peoples Few are aware of the cultural intellectual and theological achievements of Middle Eastern Christians who have resided in the world of Islam for fourteen centuries Their works are a treasure trove of riches for those investigating contemporary theological and missiological questions A God of Many Understandings Todd Miles, 2010-10-01 Western Christianity's interaction with world religions used to be for the most part overseas Today religious others often live next door At a changing time when one public prayer spoken during the 2009 U S presidential inauguration festivities was addressed to O god of our many understandings the evangelical Christian church should do more than simply dismiss non Christian religions as pagan without argument or comment The Church needs a theology of religions that is Christ honoring biblically faithful intellectually satisfying compassionate and that will encourage Spirit powered mission Oregon based theology professor Todd L Miles writes to that end in A God of Many Understandings attempting as the scholar Veli Matti K rkk inen puts it to think theologically about what it means for Christians to live with people of other faiths and about the relationship of Christianity to other religions 'For Their Rock is not as Our Rock' Daniel Strange, 2015-05-08 The reality of our post Christendom post colonial post Holocaust post 9 11 multi ethnic and multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians are acutely aware of the questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is still alive and well then seemingly so too is society's sacralization Hence the theology of religions is arguably the issue for mission in the twenty first century However there has been little evangelical theology that offers a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis that deals with not only the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of practical issues pertaining to apologetics and contextualization In this ambitious interdisciplinary study which synthesizes close exegesis biblical theology systematics and insights from the social sciences Daniel Strange examines the origins development and idolatry of the religious Other and explores how the gospel of Jesus Christ is its subversive fulfilment He concludes with a missiological postscript and some pastoral perspectives on the purpose of other religions in God's providence
