house story as five strangers resolve to spend two weeks in an abandoned high rise urban housing project that even gang lords and crack dealers avoid Chicago's Dreamland Housing Project was created to give people with nothing a second chance Like so many ill conceived dreams of its time eventually the project fell into disrepair and disrepute just another slum ruled by the gangs and the drug dealers But there was one building in the complex that contained an evil far fouler than the kind running the streets Here eerie sounds emanated nightly from the elevator shafts and the shadows at the far end of the hallways and inexplicable fatal accidents were the norm Here human blood regularly soaked the walls and cheap carpeting as rapists and murderers ran rampant though none could remember their dark deeds afterward Now decades later Dreamland is empty of its residents and mostly demolished But one building still stands thanks to billionaire Ramsey Lomax who won't let the city raze the last and most notorious tower until he is done with it Along with four willing strangers a writer an ex cop a doctor and a psychic each with a reason for participating Lomax intends to spend two weeks living in the abandoned tower to see if the legends are real But nothing can prepare these five for the terror they encounter once the front door slams behind them trapping them all inside Because in Dreamland every nightmare comes true The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger,2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell s novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author s strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines Cooper's Novels
