Barrier Of A Common Language:

Providing Health Care in the Context of Language Barriers Elizabeth A. Jacobs, Lisa C. Diamond, 2017-04-21 Global migration continues to increase and with it comes increasing linguistic diversity. This presents obvious challenges for both healthcare provider and patient and the chapters in this volume represent a range of international perspectives on language barriers in health care. A variety of factors influence the best ways of approaching and overcoming these language barriers including cultural, geographical, political and practical considerations and as a result a range of approaches and solutions are suggested and discussed. The authors in this volume discuss a wide range of countries and languages and cover issues that will be familiar to all healthcare practitioners including the role of informal interpreters interpreting in a clinical setting, bilingual healthcare practitioners and working with languages with comparatively small numbers of speakers.

Barriers to employment for vulnerable groups in the Nordic countries Højbjerg, Andreas, Kildahl Nielsen, Sarah, Jakobsen, Vibeke, Thuesen, Frederik, Lang Thomsen, Rasmus, Saikku, Peppi, Mesiäislehto, Merita, Korpi, Tomas, Lorentzen, Thomas, Celine Hardonk, Stefan, 2023-06-08 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2023/513> This report is the second report in a research project examining how to increase labour market participation among vulnerable groups in the Nordic countries. In this report we develop a framework over employment barriers that vulnerable groups face in the Nordic countries based on an extensive targeted literature review. The purpose of the framework is twofold. First we hope it can be a tool for practitioners to identify and address the broad range of barriers to employment that vulnerable groups potentially face. Second the framework will be useful in future phases of this project when we will operationalise and measure the prevalence of the barriers among vulnerable groups in the Nordic countries and analyse relevant and promising policies to help individuals with certain set of barriers.
