Patrick Hornbeck II, Michael A. Norko, 2014-03-03 This volume like its companion Voices of Our Times collects essays drawn from a series of public conferences held in autumn 2011 entitled More than a Monologue The series was the fruit of collaboration among four institutions of higher learning two Catholic universities and two nondenominational divinity schools The conferences aimed to raise awareness of and advance informed compassionate and dialogical conversation about issues of sexual diversity within the Catholic community as well as in the broader civic worlds that the Catholic Church and Catholic people inhabit They generated fresh rich sets of scholarly and reflective contributions that promise to take forward the delicate work of theological ethical and ecclesial development Along with Voices of Our Times this volume captures insights from the conferences and aims to foster what the Jesuit Superior General Fr Adolfo Nicolas has called the depth of thought and imagination needed to engage effectively with complex realities especially in areas marked by brokenness pain and the need for healing The volumes will serve as vital resources for understanding and addressing better the too often fraught relations between LGBTQ lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer persons their loved ones and allies and the Catholic community Inquiry Thought and Expression explores dimensions of ministry ethics theology and law related to a range of LGBTQ concerns including Catholic teaching its reception among the faithful and the Roman Catholic Church's significant role in world societies Within the volume a series of essays on ministry explores various perspectives not frequently heard within the church Marriage equality and the treatment of LGBTQ individuals by and within the Roman Catholic Church are considered from the vantage points of law ethics and theology Themes of language and discourse are explored in analyses of the place of sexual diversity in church history thought and authority The two volumes of More than a Monologue like the conferences from which they developed actively move beyond the monologic voice of the institutional church on the subject of LGBTQ

Christian mystical tradition a relic of another time shaped by celibates for celibates unable to engage meaningfully with people of our time who embrace their corporeality and sexuality as crucial aspects of their journey towards union with God This book reflects in serious theological depth and detail on the spiritual and sexual journeys of gay men of mature and committed Christian faith employing the Christian mystical tradition as the lens and the interlocutor in this process This study examines the major themes and stages of the mystical tradition as outlined by Evelyn Underhill but also including more recent work by Ruth Burrows Thomas Merton and Constance Fitzgerald Using methods of qualitative research it then considers the texts of in depth interviews conducted with men most of whom are theologians or spiritual leaders with a deep Catholic faith and all of whom are openly self affirmingly gay Finally it employs Ricoeur s hermeneutical theory to engage in a creative theological conversation between the traditional mystical stages and themes and these men s lives as described in their interviews This is a unique study that brings together ancient spirituality with contemporary lived religion As such it will be of interest to scholars of religious studies theology Christian mysticism and spirituality and queer studies It will be of particular interest to those teach spiritual direction and to all who seek new ways to engage with the spiritual lives of LGBTIQ people Homosexuality and Religion Jeffrey S.
