Science and Mind in Contemporary Process Thought Jakub Dziadkowiec, Lukasz Lamza, 2019-09-17. The relationship of mind to matter and the very understanding of mind and matter still eludes understanding even after millennia of philosophical work and centuries of scientific reflection. The present volume shows how process philosophy helps us in conceptualizing such problems. The reader will find twelve chapters written by prominent specialists of various specializations discussing the relation between a processual school of thinking and natural and psychological scientific research, with a focus on the problems of mind and experience. The three successive sections of the book scrutinise in increasing detail the human mind to give the full overview of the role that process philosophy might play in providing a consistent, unified language for the description of physical and mental reality.

God, Science and Mind Dennis Polis, 2012-07-15. An exercise in Open Philosophy: a worldview open to the full range of human experience, including science, spirituality, and traditional philosophy. Naturalism is exposed as a closed, a priori worldview. God is not an alternative to, but the completion of, scientific explanation. The foundations and data of evolution do not show randomness, but Mind in nature. Evolution aims at verifiable targets and develops means in advance of need. While God is proven deductively, the fine-tuning argument makes a strong case despite the anthropic principle. The rules of evidence are discussed critically before reviewing
