Basic Documents Of International Economic Law:

Basic Documents of International Economic Law Stephen Zamora,1990 International Economic Law Philip Kunig,Niels Lau,Werner Meng,2019-11-05 No detailed description available for International Economic Law Basic Documents on International Trade Law Chia-Jui Cheng,2024-11-25 Basic Documents of International Economic Law Stephen Zamora, Basic Documents of International Economic Law ,1990 International Economic Law Ignaz Seidl-Hohenveldern,1999-09-29 This is the third revised edition of International Economic Law which was first published in 1989 and based on a General Course held by the author at The Hague Academy of International Law in 1986 The success of both the first and second editions have proven this work to be a standard textbook on international economic law which has been widely used and studied This third edition takes account of some of the new developments in international economic law such as the ramifications of the Internet The comprehensive analysis of all rules of public international law having direct influence on economic relations has been maintained and elaborated Special attention is paid to the claims for a new international economic order the extraterritorial reach of domestic legislation the effects of nationalization the protection of the environment state immunity and economic welfare International Economic Organizations in the International Legal Process Sergei A. Voitovich,2023-08-28 Voitovich presents a clear and lucid discussion of the manner and form in which international economic organizations IEOs participate in two main stages of the international legal process law making and law implementation The book is based on normative instruments and fragments of practice of about fifty IEOs In order to ensure a proper and timely realization of their normative acts IEOs exercise a number of law implementing functions which are subject to a thorough comparative examination The author concludes that existing IEOs not being ideal institutional models possess a sufficient arsenal of law implementing instruments to make a considerable impact on the international legal regulations in the economic field The book will be of interest to academics and economic political scientists

International Economic Law Philip Kunig,Niels Lau,Werner Meng,1993 No detailed description available for International Economic Law Documents in International Economic Law Christian J. Tams,Christian Tietje,2012 International economic law is one of the crucial branches of international law and of major importance both practically and conceptually This document collection brings together all of the most important treaties regulations and other documents in this area It presents the key documents of contemporary international economic law in one single volume so to provide students as well as practitioners with an accessible reference guide The book will feature a brief introduction providing readers with a roadmap through what is perceived by many as the maze of international economic law The collection brings together documents relating to the three main pillars of international economic law namely world trade law international monetary law and international investment law These are preceded by texts of a more general character notably issued by the United Nations and clarifying the parameters of international economic relations This broad focus enables readers to view international economic law in its breadth and to avoid the pitfalls of a compartmentalised approach which exclusively focuses on for example WTO law or investment law without appreciating their interrelation. By bringing together key texts of all three branches the book should be invaluable to students taking general courses of international economic law as well as more specialised courses such as WTO law or investment law. Akehurst's Modern Introduction to International Law Peter Malanczuk, 2002-04-12 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
