Richard Whitaker, Janet E. Ramsey, Ronald D. Smith, 2009-01-13 Designed for those preparing to write in the current multimedia environment MediaWriting explores the linkages between print broadcast and public relations styles outlines the nature of good writing synthesizes and integrates professional skills and concepts Complete with interesting real world examples and exercises this textbook gives students progressive writing activities amid an environment for developing research and interviewing skills Starting from a basis in writing news and features for print media it moves on to writing for broadcast news media then introduces students to public relations writing in print broadcast and digital media as well as for news media and advertising venues Rather than emphasizing the differences among the three writing styles this book synthesizes and integrates the three concepts weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and reporting This book provides beginning newswriting students with a primer for developing the skills needed for work in the media industry As such it is a hands on writing text for students preparing in all professional areas of communication journalism broadcasting media and public relations

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Dynamics of Media Writing Vincent F. Filak, 2018-07-18 This fully updated Second Edition of Dynamics of Media Writing helps you learn transferable skills that can be applied across all media platforms from traditional mass media formats like news public relations and advertising to digital and social media platforms Whether writing a story press release or a tweet today's media writers must adapt their message to each specific media format in order to successfully connect with their audience New to the Second Edition A new chapter on social media discusses the latest developments in this rapidly changing area New Helpful Hints boxes help you hone your media writing skills New and updated information on interviewing dictionary usage lead structure and more bring the book fully up to date Themes from the former Chapter 14 are now woven through the book to stress the importance of clarity and accuracy lifelong learning and transferable skills Fake news is now covered in multiple sections to help you both understand and spot it when reviewing the news Additional photos and graphics illustrate the various elements of storytelling to make the information easier for you to apply New Give It a Try features at the end of the Adapt and Connect boxes allow you to try out the skills outlined
