Au Revoir Running Away From Home At Fifty:

Au Revoir Mary Moody, 2001 How the author left her work family and friends and went to live on her own in the south of France for six months      The Accidental Tour Guide Mary Moody, 2019-09-23 The Year of Magical Thinking meets Salvation Creek in a powerful memoir of love loss and discovery the third act in an extraordinary life Mary Moody's bestselling memoirs about her adventures in France Au Revoir and Last Tango in Toulouse inspired thousands of women The Accidental Tour Guide completes the circle by sharing another major turning point in her life When Mary loses her beloved husband her world is turned upside down Part of her journey to reignite her passion for living is to boldly go where she has never been before in her travels and in her everyday life A powerful moving and inspiring true story about how to rebuild your life without the people who matter most      The Long Hot Summer Mary Moody, 2006 In Au Revoir she ran away In Last Tango her world turned upside down Now her relationships are about to reach boiling point In the European summer of 2003 a deadly heat wave strikes France To Mary Moody living in her rural village in the south west of France it seems that the weather is merely imitating the stifling heat of her marriage which is on the verge of collapse following the events recounted in Last Tango in Toulouse But despite relentlessly hot days and an uncertain future Mary's new found passion for life cannot be suppressed It is not long before she is once again torn between her two desires for the independence of her life in France and for the love and continuity of her marriage and family life in Australia While Mary immerses herself in the pleasures of her second home the food and wine the markets her colourful circle of friends a shattering turn of events comes when she least expects it Au Revoir and Last Tango in Toulouse have become national bestsellers and made Mary Moody one of the best loved and most successful non fiction writers in Australia With all the warmth and candour we've come to expect The Long Hot Summer explores the minefield of relationships and changing desires set against the beautiful backdrop of rural France      What's France got to do with it? Juliana de Nooy, 2020-07-30 While only one book length memoir recounting the sojourn of an Australian in France was published in the 1990s well over 40 have been published since 2000 overwhelmingly written by women Although we might expect a focus on travel intercultural adjustment and communication in these texts this is the case only in a minority of accounts More frequently France serves as a backdrop to a project of self renovation in which transplantation to another country is incidental hence the question What's France got to do with it The book delves into what France represents in the various narratives its role in the self transformation and the reasons for the seemingly insatiable demand among readers and publishers for these stories It asks why these memoirs have gained such traction among Australian women at the dawn of the twenty first century and what is at stake in the fascination with France      New Reckonings Leigh Dale, Brigid Rooney, 2007      50+ Great Novellas and Short Stories.
