Monatschrift Fur Hohere Schulen, 1906 Screening Nostalgia Alexandra Ludewig, 2014-03-15 The Heimat film genre assumed to be outdated by so many is very much alive Who would have thought that this genre which has been almost unanimously denounced within academic circles but which seems to resonate so deeply with the general public would experience a renaissance in the 21st century The genre s recent resurgence is perhaps due less to an obsession with generic storylines and stereotyped figures than to a basic human need for grounding that has resulted in a passionate debate about issues of past and present This book traces the history of the Heimat film genre from the early mountain films to Fatih Akin s contemporary interpretations of Heimat Bulletin, 1907 Peripheral Memories Elisabeth Boesen, Fabienne Lentz, Michel Margue, Denis Scuto, Renée Wagener, 2014-03-15 After a period of intense work on national memory cultures we are observing a growing interest in memory both as a social and an individual practice Memory studies tend to focus on a particular field of memory processes namely those connected with war persecution and expulsion In this sense the memory or rather the trauma of the Holocaust is paradigmatic for the entire research field The Holocaust is furthermore increasingly understood as constitutive of a global memory community which transcends national memories and mediates universal values The present volume diverges from this perspective by dealing also with everyday subjects of memory This allows for a more complete view of the interdependencies between public and private memory and more specifically public and family memory
