Boycott The Autobiography:

Boycott Geoff Boycott, 2006 Boycott Geoffrey Boycott, 1988-05-20 Fred Trueman Chris Waters, 2011-10-01 Fred Trueman was so much more than a cricketing legend The greatest living Yorkshireman according to Prime Minister Harold Wilson he couldn't help excelling at everything he did whether it was as a hostile fast bowler for Yorkshire and England and the first man to take 300 Test wickets in a career or as a fearlessly outspoken radio summariser for Test Match Special He was famous for regularly spluttering that I don't know what's going on out there as well as for the amount of swearing he managed to incorporate into everyday speech Beloved of cricket crowds who filled grounds to witness his belligerent way of playing the game and nothing but trouble to the cricket authorities Fiery Fred was the epitome of a full-blooded Englishman But as Chris Waters reveals in this first full biography behind the charismatic exuberant mask lay a far less self-assured man terrified even that his new dog wouldn't like him and whose bucolic version of his upbringing bore no relation to the gritty and impoverished South Yorkshire mining community where he actually grew up Drawing on dozens of new interviews with his Yorkshire colleagues family and friends this life of Fred Trueman will surprise and even shock but also confirm the status of an English folk hero Grovel! David Tossell, 2012-05-11 When England cricket captain Tony Greig announced that he intended to make the West Indies grovel he lit a fire that burned as intensely as the sunshine of Britain's long hot summer of 1976 Spurred on by what they saw as a deeply offensive remark by a white South African Clive Lloyd's touring team made Greig pay through the exciting batting of Viv Richards and the frightening pace of bowlers Michael Holding and Andy Roberts Grovel provides a fascinating study of the events and social issues surrounding one of the sport's most controversial and colourful tours Runner up in Best Cricket Book category at both the British Sports Book Awards and Cricket Society Book of the Year Forthright foreword by Tony Greig in which he addresses one of the most infamous comments in cricket history Featuring interviews with key figures from English and West Indian cricket Addresses all the vibrant sporting storylines of the series while examining the darker undercurrent that existed in a period of ongoing racial tension around the country Traces the origins of the great West Indies team of the 1970s and 80s which featured in the film Fire of Babylon

The Art of Centuries Steve James, 2015-04-09 A century has always had a special resonance in all walks of life and none more so than in cricket Scoring one hundred runs is the ultimate for a batsman As former England captain Andrew Strauss admits it's incredibly hard to do for Ricky Ponting it's a transformational moment in the career of a cricketer Or in the words of Geoffrey Boycott a century has its own magic In The Art of Centuries Steve James applies his award-winning forensic insight to the very heart of batting Through interviews with the leading run scorers in cricket history and his own experiences Steve discovers what mental and physical efforts are required to reach those magical three figures Despite his own haul of 47 first-class tons he himself felt at times that he was poorly equipped for the task So working out how to score centuries is an art And bowlers might not agree but there really is no better feeling in cricket British Sport:

Heatwave John L Williams, 2025-05-08 Grippingly captures the three months that shook Britain's cultural landscape PAULINE BLACK Scorching seething and scintillating Heatwave conjures a slow burning collage of a country on the brink I lived through those cruel months and Williams recreates them with intense skill SIMON GARFIELD An absolute joy PETE PAPHIDES Engrossing powerful goes way beyond nostalgia DAVID KYNASTON With temperatures soaring to 35oC severe water shortages and a sunburned population queuing at the standpipes the summer of 1976 was always remembered as Britain's hottest But the wave that hit the UK that year was also cultural and political with upheaval on the streets in parliament on the cricket pitch and on the radios and TV sets of a nation at a crossroads Before this blistering summer Britain seemed stuck in the post war era a country where people were all in it together as long as you were white male and straight In July Tom Robinson writes a song called Glad to be Gay and by August bank holiday Black youth are making the police run for their lives in the almighty riot at the Notting Hill Carnival But with the Labour Prime Minister Harold Wilson suddenly quitting the pound sinking and the economy tanking a restless immigrant population and increasing dissatisfaction in the old world order the weather seemed to boil up the country to the point where the lid blows off Weaving a rich tapestry of the news stories of the year with social commentary and dozens of first person interviews with those that were there at the time Williams's reappraisal of the summer of 76 is an evocative sometimes nostalgic but always an unflinching read Heatwave takes us back to relive the events of that summer and asks have we really moved on as much as we would have liked
