Branded Nation The Marketing Of Megachurch College Inc And Museumworld:

Branded Nation James B. Twitchell, 2004 Twitchell performs a trenchant and witty social analysis of how branding has permeated reshaped and perhaps reinvigorated high culture from religion to higher education to the art world 50 illustrations throughout Branded Nation James B. Twitchell, 2006-10 Creating Great Visitor Experiences Stephanie Weaver, 2016-07-11 Museum and other non profit professionals have begun to realize that the complete visitor experience is the key to repeat attendance successful fundraising and building audience loyalty Taking lessons learned by successful experience shapers in the for profit world Stephanie Weaver distills this knowledge for museums and other organizations which depend on visitor satisfaction for success Is your institution welcoming Are the bathrooms clean Does the staff communicate well Are there enough places to sit These practical matters may mean more to creating a loyal following than any exhibit or program the institution develops Weaver breaks the visitor experience down to 8 steps and provides practical guidance to museums and related institutions on how to create optimal visitor experiences for each of them In a workshop like format she uses multiple examples exercises and resource links to walk the reader through the process Brandishing the First Amendment Tamara Piety, 2012-02-08 Tamara R Piety argues that increasingly expansive First Amendment protections for commercial speech imperil public health safety and welfare the reliability of commercial and consumer information the stability of financial markets and the global environment Using evidence from public relations and marketing behavioral economics psychology and cognitive studies she shows how overly permissive extensions of protections to commercial expression limit governmental power to address a broad range of public policy issues High on God James Wellman Jr., Katie Corcoran, Kate Stockly, 2020-01-10 God is like a drug a high I can't wait for the next hit This direct quote from a megachurch member speaking about his experience of God might be dismissed as some sort of spiritually induced drug riff However according to the research in this book it was not only sincere but a deeply felt and sought after sensibility Megachurch attendees desire this first hand experience of God and many report finding it in their congregations The book focuses on the emotional social and religious dynamics that pull thousands of people into megachurches and how those churches make some feel like they are high on God and can't wait to get their next spiritual hit High on God gives the first robust and plausible explanation for why megachurches have conquered the churchgoing market of America Without condescension or exaggeration the authors show the genius of megachurches the power of charisma the design of facilities the training of leaders the emotional dynamics and the strategies that bring people together and lead them to serve and help others Using Emile Durkheim's concept of homo duplex the authors plot the strategies that megachurches employ to satisfy the core human craving for personal meaning and social integration as well as personal identity and communal solidarity The authors also show how these churches can go wrong sometimes tragically so But they argue that for the most part megachurches help their attendees find themselves through bonding with and serving others De-Introducing the New Testament Todd Penner, Davina Lopez, 2015-06-15 In De Introducing the New Testament the authors argue for a renewed commitment to the defamiliarizing power of New Testament studies and a reclaiming of the discipline as one that exemplifies the best practices of the humanities A new approach that asks us to defamiliarize what we think we know about the New Testament articulating themes and questions about its study that encourage further reflection and engagement Looks behind the traditional ways in which the NT is introduced to critically engage the conceptual framework of the field as a whole Provides a critical intervention into several methodological impasses in contemporary NT scholarship Offers an appraisal of the relationship between economics and culture in the production of NT scholarship Written in a style that is clear and concise ideal for student readership Indian Writing in English and the Global Literary Market O. Dwivedi, L. Lau, 2014-10-28 Indian Writing in English and the Global Literary Market delves into the influences and pressures of the marketplace on this genre which this volume contends has been both gatekeeper as well as a significant force in shaping the production and consumption of this literature The Political Economy of City Branding Ari-Veikko Anttiroiko, 2014-02-24 Globalization affects urban communities in many ways One of its manifestations is increased intercity competition which compels cities to increase their attractiveness in terms of capital entrepreneurship information expertise and consumption This competition takes place in an asymmetric field with cities trying to find the best possible ways of using their natural and created assets the latter including a naturally evolving reputation or consciously developed competitive identity or brand The Political Economy of City Branding discusses this phenomenon from the perspective of numerous post industrial cities in North America Europe East Asia and Australasia Special attention is given to local economic development policy and industrial profiling and global city rankings are used to provide empirical evidence for cities characteristics and positions in the global urban hierarchy On top of this social and urban challenges such as creative class struggle are also discussed The core message of the book is that cities should apply the tools of city branding in their industrial promotion and specialization but at the same time take into account the special nature of their urban communities and be open and inclusive in their brand policies in order to ensure optimal results This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners working in the areas of local economic development urban planning public management and branding Routledge International Handbook of Religion in Global Society Jayeel Cornelio, François Gauthier, Tuomas Martikainen, Linda Woodhead, 2020-11-29 Like any other subject the study of religion is a child of its time Shaped and forged over the course of the twentieth century it has reflected the interests and political situation of the world at the time As the twenty first century unfolds it is undergoing a major transition along with religion itself This volume showcases new work and new approaches to religion which work across boundaries of religious tradition academic discipline and region The influence of globalizing processes has been evident in social and cultural networking by way of new media like the internet in the extensive power of global capitalism and in the increasing influence of international bodies and legal instruments Religion has been changing and adapting too

This handbook offers fresh insights on the dynamic reality of religion in global societies today by underscoring transformations in eight key areas Market and Branding Contemporary Ethics and Virtues Intimate Identities Transnational Movements Diasporic Communities Responses to Diversity National Tensions and Reflections on Religion These themes demonstrate the handbook's new topics and approaches that move beyond existing agendas Bringing together scholars of all ages and stages of career from around the world the handbook showcases the dynamism of religion in global societies It is an accessible introduction to new ways of approaching the study of religion practically theoretically and geographically

Trust in International Police and Justice Cooperation Saskia Hufnagel, Carole McCartney, 2017-01-26 The use of extra territorial intelligence is growing among security border and public agencies Internationally rapidly evolving efforts to tackle transnational crime entail the exchange of intelligence across jurisdictions and state borders as well as the linking of law enforcement operations This book provides a number of different perspectives from across Europe Australasia and Canada to examine recent cooperation experiences and the challenges faced in practice The book brings together scholars from a range of legal and criminological fields to examine the legal imperatives and social parameters that shape international police and justice cooperation and highlights the importance of both trust and clear legal rules to ensure effective cooperation It focuses on areas where cooperation is now mandated but where significant issues are raised including the international and regional methods of information and intelligence exchange and challenges to human rights protection the coordination of international and regional exchange of evidence such as forensic bioinformation police cooperation in international investigations and the added value of formalising investigative strategies across jurisdictions regionally and internationally and the operation accountability and legitimacy of organisations and institutions of cooperation in law enforcement and specific international policing missions
