Brazil The Amazons The Coast:

Brazil, the Amazons and the Coast Herbert Huntington Smith, 1879 Brazil Herbert H. Smith, 1880 Emancipating the Female Sex June Edith Hahner, 1990 June E Hahner's pioneering work Emancipating the Female Sex offers the first comprehensive history of the struggle for women's rights in Brazil. Based on previously undiscovered primary sources and fifteen years of research, Hahner's study provides long overdue recognition of the place of women in Latin American history. Hahner traces the history of Brazilian women's fight for emancipation from its earliest manifestations in the mid nineteenth century to the successful conclusion of the suffrage campaign in the 1930s. Drawing on interviews with surviving Brazilian suffragists and contemporary feminists as well as manuscripts and printed documents, Hahner explores the strategies and ideological positions of Brazilian feminists. In focusing on urban upper and middle class women from whose ranks the leadership for change arose, she examines the relationship between feminism and social change in Brazil's complex and highly stratified society.

Brazil, the Amazons and the Coast Herbert Huntington Smith, 2018-07-11 Brazil Herbert H. Smith, 1879 BRAZIL HERBERT H. SMITH, 2022 Brazil. The Amazons and the Coast, by Herbert H. Smith,... Herbert Huntington Smith, The People of the River Oscar de la Torre, 2018-08-17 In this history of the black peasants of Amazonia, Oscar de la Torre focuses on the experience of African descended people navigating the transition from slavery to freedom. He draws on social and environmental history to connect them intimately to the natural landscape and to Indigenous peoples. Relying on this world as a repository for traditions, discourses and strategies that they retrieved especially in moments of conflict, Afro Brazilians fought for autonomous communities and developed a vibrant ethnic identity that supported their struggles over labor, land and citizenship. Prior to abolition, enslaved and escaped blacks found in the tropical forest a source for tools, weapons and trade, but it was also a cultural storehouse within which they shaped their stories and records of confrontations with slaveowners and state authorities. After abolition, the black peasants' knowledge of local environments continued to be key to their aspirations, allowing them to maintain relationships with powerful patrons and to participate in the protest cycle that led Getúlio Vargas to the presidency of Brazil in 1930. In commonly referring to themselves by such names as sons of the river, black Amazonians melded their agro-ecological traditions with their emergent identity as political stakeholders.
