The Life of Walt Whitman in His Own Words Walt Whitman, 2020-05-02 Specimen Days is a series of diary entries about Whitman's life from his boyhood days at Rockaway Beach to his nursing days in Washington D C during the Civil War and finally to his time in Camden New Jersey His account of the Civil War Hospitals is painful to read but his kindness and ministrations to the wounded soldiers writing them letters home and giving them horehound candy are really touching He estimated that visited between 80 000 and 100 000 young men My great grandfather was in one of those hospitals so I like to think that Walt stopped by to give him some candy and talk After the war Whitman came down with an illness and was partially paralyzed He moved to Camden and spent his afternoons outside in nature He attributes his rebound in health to this time and wrote many essays about the outdoors and the nature around him In Their Own Words Solveig Zempel, 2013-11-30 For most Norwegians in the nineteenth century America was a remote and exotic place until the first immigrants began to write home Their letters were among the most valuable accessible and reliable sources of information about the new world and the journey to it For many immigrants writing letters home was their most cherished opportunity to communicate their thoughts and feelings in their native language Through vivid translations of letters written to family and friends between 1870 and 1945 In Their Own Words traces the stories of nine Norwegian immigrants farmer fisherman gold miner politician unmarried mother housewife businessman railroad worker contractor Their common bond was the experience of immigration and acculturation but their individual experiences were manifested in a wide variety of forms Solveig Zempel has thoughtfully selected and translated letters rich in personal description and observation to present each writer's subjective view of historical events Often focusing on the minutiae of daily life and the feelings of the individual immigrant the letters form a complex intimate and colorful mosaic of the immigrant world Solveig Zempel is chair of the Norwegian Department at St Olaf College in Northfield Minnesota
